No Vote on City Funds Council Approves $850 for Garbage

Action on sums totalling more than $90,000 was again deferred Tuesday night by the Common Council, which, however did approve an item of $850 for garbage removal costs.

Deferred until the next regular meeting Nov. 5 was action on a $40,000 claim for snow removal, nearly the same sum for

Ambulance Committee Is Named Will Study Lack Of Public Service

A Common Council committee was named last night to study the city's lack of public ambulance service when the Schultz Ambulance Service, 599 Delaware Avenue, quits all but private calls Oct. 31, as was announced recently.

Alderman Samuel J. Perry (R) Fifth Ward, noted that Mayor Edwin F. Radel had been informed of discontinuance of the service, and he felt that something should be done about it.

Four on Group

Council President Harold L. Kaye named as the committee: Donald M. Hastings (D) Third Ward, chairman; Clark W. Myers (R), Second Ward; William K. Bodenweber (D), Ninth Ward, and Alderman Perry as the committee.

Charles Schulenberg, of the ambulance service, in a letter dated Oct. 20, notified Mayor Radel that he planned to discontinue the service as of Oct. 31.

"I have been rendering a public service in accepting forced calls without payment. I cannot continue to do this as the financial loss to me is too great," he wrote. He sought the mayor's (Continued on Page 10, Col. 3)

Perry Asks What Has Happened to Economy Party?

Alderman Samuel J. Perry (R) Fifth Ward, wanted to know at last night's Common Council meeting, "What has happened to the Economy Party?"

Perry recalled that members of the party had attended council sessions during the previous Republican administration and appeared concerned with whatever expenditures were called for then.

"Ever since this administration has been in," he observed, "I haven't seen anybody from the Economy party. What's happened?"

The question was put to Harold L. Kaye, council president, who replied:

"How can I answer that question? How would I know?"

Perry indicated that he was not actually interested in an answer from the chair, but he would like to know why the party (Continued on Page 8, Col. 5)

State Proposes Controls Over Repairs on TV Sets

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — A plan to prevent television repairmen from cheating set owners was unveiled today by Gov. Harriman's consumer counsel.

Dr. Persha Campbell said the proposed controls were intended to protect honest servicemen as well as the public. The plan applies to servicing of both radios and television sets.

The program would need legislative approval before it could become effective.

Dr. Campbell proposed laws to require that:

1 — Guarantees regarding sale or servicing of TV sets and radios be sufficiently clear as to the scope, value or effect of the guarantee.

2 — Bills be itemized to show what parts are new, used or reconditioned.

public works equipment and on $12,000 to cover the bookkeeping change due to transfer of school tax collection from the city treasurer's office to the education department.

GOP Asks More Time

Republican aldermen asked for more time to study the sums in itemized form and majority members went along. The aldermen are due to meet next Tuesday night to go over the sums in preparation for the Nov. 5 meeting.

No report was given on a requested $50,000 in revenue anticipation notes to cover costs of operating the water department for the balance of the year. The sum was requested at the regular session Oct. 7, and was referred to the finance committee.

It was noted that for snow removal $20,000 had been provided for in the budget. An expenditure of $30,341.79, was listed, and it is estimated that $9,628.21 will be required to cover snow removal to Dec. 31, 1958.

Six Trucks Sought

Six new trucks with dump bodies at a total cost of $31,940.50 are sought for the public works department to replace units which date back to 1948 and 1949, and the cost of two requested highway spreaders was listed at $5,932.04.

The $12,500 requested represents a sum formerly paid by the education department for collection of school taxes. The education department, instead of the city treasurer's office, now collects the taxes, but the sum had still been listed in the 1958 budget as formerly although it will not be received.

Ryan Favored Vote

This item, said Alderman James K. Ryan (D) 10th Ward, majority leader, is merely a matter of bookkeeping, and he failed to see why it could not have been acted upon last night. Minority members, however, indicated that they wanted to study all items before acting upon them.

Ryan finally said he saw no reason why the majority members should be "picky" and not agree to hold over, and the other Democrats went along.

Alderman Samuel J. Perry (R) Fifth Ward, indicated that one reason for study of the $12,500 school tax item, was that a sum had been asked for extra help in the city treasurer's office, even though it was relieved of school tax collection. The sum, listed Oct. 7 as $1,300, it was noted, was because of illness in the office, and the consequent (Continued on Page 10, Col. 5)

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Registration in New York State for the Nov. 4 election stands at 6,769,904 — an all-time peak for a gubernatorial election year, an Associated Press survey shows.

Leaders of both the Democratic and Republican parties scented victory in the autumn air.

The record sign-up seemed to stem from high interests in the battle between Democratic Gov. Harriman and Republican Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Vols Given Praise for Training Aid

The Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association was complimented Tuesday evening at its October meeting by Anthony DeLisio of the New York State Division of Safety on its recent fire training program.

Meeting as guests of Ulster Hose No. 5, Town of Ulster, there were 44 companies represented with an attendance of 150 members, when President Arthur Hahn called the session to order.

Ulster Hose Gets Trophy

Ulster Hose No. 5, was presented with a trophy which was awarded for being the best appearing company in line at the Rockland County Firemen's Association parade at Haverstraw, Ulster Hose, one of the three Ulster county units appearing in the parade, left Haverstraw before the award had been voted and the trophy was presented last night to the company by DeLisio, Marlboro Fire Company and the Marlboro Ladies Auxiliary also were awarded trophies at the convention.

A communication was received and read from the Firemen's Association of the State of New York in regard to the handling and distribution of the 2 percent tax on the out-of-state insurance which goes to volunteer fire companies.

A resolution adopted by the New York State Fire Chiefs Association favoring election of all fire chiefs as of January 1, was discussed. The resolution seeks to make the election date uniform throughout the state. Copies of the resolution have been sent to all volunteer fire companies. County Fire Coordinator Winfred Snyder will make a survey of all county fire companies to ascertain when they now hold their election for chief and report back to the county association.

It was announced the "clearing house" meeting of the Firemen's Association of the State of New York would be held at the DeWitt Clinton Hotel, Albany, Sunday, Nov. 16 at 9 a. m. at which time proposed legislation for 1959 will be reviewed. Any local company desiring to submit proposed legislation is asked to send in such proposals 10 days in advance to Albert E. Foley, chairman of the Law Committee of the Firemen's Association of the State of New York, at 198 State Street, Albany. The proposals will then be reviewed by the clearing house.

The following five proposals were approved for submission to the (Continued on Page 10, Col. 8)

The AP compilation, issued Tuesday night, used official figures from county election boards. They showed a gain of 551,607 across the state from the 6,218,297 registered four years ago when Harriman defeated Republican Irving M. Ives by 11,125 votes.

The old mark for a gubernatorial year was the 6,436,236 registered in 1950, when Republican Thomas E. Dewey was elected for his third and last term. The record turnout for any year was the 7,841,613 registered in 1932, when Dwight D. Eisenhower defeated Adlai Stevenson the first time.

Increases Reported

New York City's registration of 2,672,347 this year was an increase of 206,792 from the 1954 level. Counties outside the city registered 4,096,957 — an increase of 344,815.

New York City is a Democratic stronghold. Upstate is heavily Republican.

L. Judson Morhouse, Republican state chairman, viewed the registration totals as assurance of a Rockefeller victory. The GOP candidate will come into New York City with an Upstate majority of $50,000 to 1,000,000 votes, Morhouse said.

Predicts 400,000 Victory

Michael H. Prendergast, Democratic state chairman, predicted that Harriman would be re-elected by 400,000 votes and carry the whole Democratic ticket with him.

Morhouse said the registration boost was favorable to Rockefeller even in New York City. "Of the 206,792 increase in the city, 99,014 was in Queens, the most Republican county in the state," he said. (Continued on Page 10, Col. 5)

Haver Points Out Traffic Detail Murphy's at Time

The missing affidavit in the trial of a suspended police official for misconduct was produced at Tuesday night's session, and the man who said he signed it was questioned again concerning the burglary of a dress firm last year.

Besides Moe Safarty, former production manager at Prim-Rose Sportswear plant, 83 Smith Avenue, two other witnesses called by the Kingston Board of Police Commissioners were heard at the departmental trial, Patrolman Floyd Krom and Clarence W. Brophy, a detective who retired October 15.

Firm's Attorney Barred

Attorney Seymour Werbalowsky, who had a letter from Albert Camhi, requesting that he sit in on the trial, was refused permission to attend by the police board. Werbalowsky said Camhi, a part owner of the firm, desired to refute some of the Safarty statements printed after Monday's trial session.

Robert F. Murphy, who was suspended from his post as deputy chief by the commissioners on August 13, is charged with four counts of misconduct and one of incompetency growing out of the 1957 police department probe by Arthur L. Reuter, who was acting state investigator.

Stems From Burglary

The one charge of misconduct, which the board is hearing now, grew out of a burglary at the Prim-Rose plant March 23, 1957, and the police board is endeavoring to find out whether there was any negligence in handling a police investigation and who (Continued on Page 8, Col. 7)

Beacon Plant Up For Sale, Idled Since Late July

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Rubber Corp., blaming a strike, has announced its plant at Beacon, N. Y., is up for sale.

The plant in Dutchess County has been closed since July 26 because of a strike by the Rubber Workers Union.

The for-sale announcement by the company was issued here on Tuesday.

30 Perish In Collision Of Planes British Airliner, Italian Jet Ram

ANZIO, Italy (AP) — British airliner and an Italian military jet collided four miles above Italy today, killing all 30 aboard the passenger plane.

Wreckage of the British European Airways four-engine turboprop plane was scattered for more than a mile near this famous World War II battlefield 30 miles south of Rome.

Explodes in Air

The military plane exploded in the air. Seconds before that the Italian pilot parachuted, landing in the Mediterranean. A fishing boat picked him up. He was taken to a hospital in grave condition.

The airliner's dead included Jane Buckingham, London model involved in a romance in which she had pictured actress Eva Bartok as trying to take over an Indian prince who "is mine."

The prince, 27-year-old Shiv Palitana, is in Naples and Miss Buckingham, 22, was presumably en route there to try to patch things up.

The BEA Viscount airliner was on a flight from London to Naples and Malta. The collision came 15 minutes before the plane was due at Naples.

All Bodies Recovered

Within three hours, Italian police had recovered all 30 bodies.

BEA in Rome said its plane was flying at 23,500 feet.

Rome's Ciampino airfield reported weather in the area was clear.

The shattered British plane crashed into an Italian artillery testing ground and only about 200 yards from an explosives dump.

DIES HERE AT 110 YEARS — Mrs. Johanna Vandermark, who claimed to be 110 years of age on Sept. 10, died this morning at the Tyler Convalescent Home, 59 Gill Street, where she has been a resident for several years. She is the second centenarian to have died in Kingston this week, Miss Emily Goeller, 105, having died here Sunday night. (Story on page 8)

Allen Sets Jan. 1, 1959 For Enlarged District

An order consolidating 25 outlying school districts with Kingston has been signed by Dr. James E. Allen Jr., State Commissioner of Education.

Notice of the decision was contained in a letter received today by President Robert Herzog of the Kingston Board of Education.

The Greater Kingston Area Consolidation becomes effective Jan. 1, 1959.

The decision, reached after a long critical period of trial and controversy in the city of Kingston, was greeted with general acclaim today in spot checks by The Freeman.

Indicates Further Action

However, in a brief statement released by Eugene DeDea, chairman of the education committee of the Kingston Civic Association, it was indicated that further action may be taken in the matter.

The statement follows: "We, the four appellants, will first have to receive a copy of the order from Commissioner James E. Allen Jr., and a study will then be made as to just what the procedure will be in regards to the consolidation issue."

The four appellants are DeDea, Worthington L. Rider, Howard Fox and Bernie Singer, all members of the local civic association. Their original appeal was from a decision of the Kingston Board of Education to consolidate despite the results of a city referendum in which 2,559 voted against consolidation and 2,281 in favor.

Dr. Allen said in his letter to Herzog that "with the signing of the consolidation order, I sincerely hope that rapid progress can be made toward the development of a strong enlarged city school district that will bring increased educational opportunities to the children of the area and better social and economic conditions to the entire community."

Pledges Cooperation

He pledged the cooperation of his staff in effecting a smooth changeover to the new district and in bringing about the finest possible educational system in the Kingston area.

A storm of controversy broke last April when the board of education voted seven to one for consolidation (one member absent) despite the referendum in which a majority of 278 out of some 5,000 votes cast were opposed to an enlarged city district.

Seven members of the board voted for it, with County Judge Louis G. Cruhn casting his ballot against consolidation, feeling that it was wrong in principle to overthrow the referendum. David Kline, chairman of the Greater Kingston Area Consolidation Committee of the board, was absent due to illness.

The feeling of the board in voting for consolidation, after thrashing over the results of the referendum, was that the margin of the vote was too small to reduce a proposition which, it believed, meant so much to the education of Kingston and area children.

Not Bound by Law

The board was not required by law to submit the proposition to consolidation to a vote but did so in order to be "guided" in its decision. It was the intention of the board to obtain through a "straw poll" some idea of the thinking of the community, but it indicated that the vote would be informal and not binding.

Observers anticipated that at the most the meetings would produce a better understanding, and a joint declaration of continued cooperation.

Robertson denied that the offshore islands were being held by the Nationalists as a base for future invasion of the mainland.

"There isn't anyone above the intelligence of a military man who thinks for one moment these islands are a base for an attack on the mainland," he declared.

Only for Defense

"The forces are there in strength (about 100,000 men) not for an offensive but for defensive purposes."

Until the Reds ended the cease-fire, Dulles reportedly had hoped to get Chiang to withdraw a large number of them as evidence he did not plan to use the islands as the jumping-off point for an invasion. Dulles had hoped this would induce the Communists to make their cease-fire permanent.

Decision Due Tomorrow

The Independent-Socialist party, a left-wing group, is seeking a place on the statewide ballot Nov. 4. The Appellate division's third department is hearing the case tomorrow and probably will hand down a decision tomorrow night. The case could go to the Court of Appeals, which would take at least another day.

Jubick noted that this would give county boards only a week to mail out correct absentee ballots and have them returned. Some ballots are requested from Alaska and the West Coast and there would not be time enough (Continued on Page 10, Col. 4)

William R. Jubick, assistant director of the election bureau, said this would disenfranchise fewer voters than if the boards waited for settlement of election disputes.

Under the election law, absentee ballots cannot be counted unless they are in the hands of county election boards by 5 p. m. on Oct. 31.

Koenig, who was appointed recently by Governor Harriman to succeed Cook following his death, charged that funds had been deposited far in excess of the authorized amount "in one particular bank;" that the amount on deposit had "on occasions exceeded the amount permitted by over a million dollars."

"The fundamental difficulty with Mr. Koenig's position is that he does not recognize the difference between a mere check-collecting transaction and a regular deposit," Relyea declared.

The chairman of the Board of Supervisors said the latest audit report of the Democratic State Department of Audit and Control fully approved "the amount and form of securities deposited by local bank depositories to protect county funds."

Relyea noted that the report was sent to Cook by Arthur Levitt, "the present state Democratic comptroller under date of June 24, 1957 . . . and apparently Mr. Koenig has not yet read it."

That audit report, Relyea (Continued on Page 8, Col. 6)

14 RV Students Take Regents Scholarship Exam

Fourteen students of the Rondout Valley Central High School took the New York State Regents Scholarship Examinations last Wednesday and Thursday.

Five different types of state scholarships are available to high school graduates in New York State: The regents college scholarship, the regents scholarship for basic professional education in nursing, the regents scholarship for engineering and scientific studies, the regents scholarship in Cornell University, and the regents scholarship for children of deceased and disabled war veterans. All five scholarships are based upon competitive standings in the Regents Scholarship Examinations. Charles Barnum, Allen Bogartz, Vincent Gallagher, and Fred Sherman completed the examination for the Regents College Scholarship. Approximately 5,000 of these scholarships are awarded annually, each worth $250 to $700 a year, depending on financial need, and are valid for a maximum of four years at any accredited college or university within New York State.

300 Hundred Yearly
Mary Ann Kilgannon wrote the examinations for both the Regents College and the Nursing Scholarships. Three hundred Nursing Scholarships are awarded yearly, carrying a stipend of $200 to $500 a year, depending on financial need, valid for up to four years at any recognized school of nursing in New York State.

Competing for the Cornell as well as the Regents College Scholarships were Padriac Colvin, Rita Levine, S. Donald Quick, and Carolyn Wood. Fifty-eight scholarships are awarded annually to students who plan to attend Cornell University. These are tuition-reducing scholarships ranging from $100 to $1,000 a year, depending on need. Warren Cairo, Myrna Krom, and Marvin Stoddard completed the examinations for the regents college, the Cornell, and the engineering scholarships. One thousand engineering scholarships are awarded each year carrying a stipend of $300 to $850 a year, depending on financial need, to students who plan to study engineering or to specialize in mathematics, physics, or chemistry in college. In addition, James Bentivegna and Donald Wise are competing for both the Regents College and the Engineering Scholarships.

Keating Charges Hogan Is Ducking Offers to Debate

By CHARLES DUMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer
LOCKPORT, N. Y. (AP)—Rep. Kenneth B. Keating challenged Frank S. Hogan today to "come out of hiding" and debate the issues in their battle for U. S. Senator.

The Republican nominee protested that Hogan, Democratic-Liberal candidate, had "ducked every opportunity" for a face-to-face showdown.

"It is time for my opponent to stop playing political hide and seek," Keating declared.

"He owes it to the people of New York State to present his record, if he has one, and his personal views on national and international affairs, if he has any."

Keating repeatedly has challenged the Manhattan district attorney to debate campaign issues any time and any place but Hogan has never accepted.

Fresh Challenge

The veteran Rochester Congressman issued a fresh challenge as he entered the second day of his last campaign swing Upstate.

Keating spoke at an Orleans County dinner-rally in Albion Tuesday night and planned appearances today in Lockport, Niagara Falls, and North Tonawanda before joining Nelson A. Rockefeller, the GOP gubernatorial candidate, for a round of campaigning in and around Buffalo. Keating will wind up his tour Thursday with stops in Dunkirk, Fredonia and Jamestown.

His new challenge to Hogan came after reporters queried Keating on the prospect for a public debate before the Nov. 4 election.

Overdue, He Says

"The time for my opponent to come out of hiding is long overdue," Keating said in a statement. "He must in good conscience face the hard issues of the day—and the voters—in the spotlight of open debate."

Opening the campaign swing Tuesday night, Keating criticized Hogan for what he said was "dangerous shilly-shallying on foreign affairs" and for showing "lack of information" on domestic issues.

At a news conference at the Rochester Airport, he professed optimism about his chances for election.

"The situation looks better and better all the time," he said. "I think I'm ahead. I have found nothing but enthusiasm for our entire ticket."

Thunderous Brahms

BOSTON (AP)—Seldom has man's love of good music been put to so trying a test. During a concert under the stars at the Esplanade on Boston's Charles River the audience was drenched by a torrential downpour. The conductor considered calling off the concert but some 3,000 listeners held their ground. The music lovers were put to still another test. Brahms First Symphony—against a backdrop of thunder and lightning—took on an unfamiliar Wagnerian touch.

Strikes Are Held Possible in Milk Industry: York

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—The dairy industry might see some disorderly conditions in the not-too-distant future, an official of a major organization of dairy farmers said Tuesday night.

John C. York, executive secretary of the Eastern Milk Producers Cooperatives, addressed the fall meeting of delegates of the organization's 160 local units.

York said that consolidation of many milk dealers was anticipated in the next five years. The dealers are the middlemen between farmer and consumer.

The consolidations would allow closing of some plants and more efficient distribution, York said. Savings realized could be passed on to the farmer as higher prices for the milk he sells or to the consumer as lower prices for the milk he buys.

But, said York, if the savings are made without paying farmers more or charging consumers less "the dairy industry might see some disorderly conditions in the not-too-distant future."

York did not specify what he meant by "disorderly conditions."

There have been in recent years milk strikes in which farmers have withheld milk from handlers in attempts to force higher prices. Splitter dairy organizations have waged these strikes. Major dairy groups, such as Eastern, have kept out of such movements.

Gilbert H. Cargin of East Meredith, treasurer of Eastern, told the meeting that farmers must curtail production if they are to receive a fair price for their milk.

Such curtailment, he said, would probably require national regulation if it were to be effective.

Corsall Continues Under Suspension From School Post

OSWEGO, N. Y. (AP)—The Board of Education is continuing the suspension of Mayor Vincent A. Corsall from his teaching post at Oswego High School.

The suspension was ordered after Corsall was arrested Oct. 4 in New York City on a disorderly conduct charge that involved allegations of a morals offense. He was acquitted of the charge last Thursday.

The board held a stormy, closed meeting Tuesday night on the mayor's case. The session lasted two hours.

The board said it would continue its investigation and that a report would be issued by Oct. 30.

Corsall, a science teacher, is under suspension without pay.

He was elected mayor on the Liberal Party ticket last November.

The school board then sought to oust him from his teaching post. The board acted on the ground that the job of mayor, who appoints members of the school board, was incompatible with that of a teacher, who is an employee of the board.

Corsall won a legal battle to keep his teaching post. He later spearheaded passage of a referendum in which voters decided that school board members would be selected by popular vote instead of by mayoral appointment.

NEED FOR LEADERSHIP

At the general election November 4, the people of the State of New York will reach an historic decision in the selection of a governor. The decision will affect their personal well-being, the state's economic vitality and our continued social progress for at least the next four years.

Most economists agree that the 1960's will see a great expansion of our economy with more business, more payrolls and more jobs than ever before.

As a state, we must have vigorous, aggressive and imaginative leadership to prepare us for this period and the problems that will arise.

These will be new times and new challenges that will require strong leadership and we believe that Nelson Rockefeller will provide the necessary know-how.

Recently the New York Chamber of Commerce stated that New York State is faced with a growing financial crisis. There is a widening gap between how much the state collects and how much it spends.

Governor Harriman's 1958-59 budget turned red ink into a more acceptable shade of blue-black only through the juggling of the state's accounts. Its total of $1,843,000,000 was some $236,000,000 more than the state expected to collect from all current revenue sources.

By using $138,000,000 in funds raised through the sale of bonds, this deficit was cut in half. The rest was met by draining $98,000,000 from the Capital Construction Fund, which was originally designed to meet the costs of the state's building program in the next 12 months.

This left the Capital Construction Fund with usable assets of only $22,000,000 which isn't much when you consider that a year before the Fund totaled more than $120,000,000. What is more, the Fund was deprived of $26,000,000 it was to receive from a surplus in the War Bonus and Mental Health Bond accounts. But this surplus also went to pay for the state's higher spending programs.

All of this means that in the future the state will have to place more reliance on bond issues to finance construction of roads and other needed facilities. This in turn will mean a rising debt and high debt service charges. The increased use of bond funds will require still more borrowing to convert receivables into ready cash to meet current expenses. And so on, and so on.

Clearly, unless means can be found to curb the continuing spiral of the state budget, our taxes will go higher and higher. This is a matter that concerns large and small taxpayers alike. For higher taxes will cause many industries that employ large numbers of our citizens to succumb to the wooing to other states which offer lower taxes as an enticement to industry. New enterprises will be discouraged from expanding or setting up shop within our borders.

The hard fact of the matter is that this trend already is underway. New York State has not kept pace with the rest of the nation in economic expansion.

In order to stop this drifting farther and farther behind the national economic pace, we must have a dynamic and effective leadership. Nelson Rockefeller can provide this leadership.

CARS IN REVERSE

The New York Central Railroad recently sold 32 streamlined sleepers to the Canadian National Railroad. This is due to the falling off in the Central's passenger business. Other roads also are cutting their passenger service, and in some cases dropping it altogether. As this process goes on—and there are predictions that there may be no more passenger trains by 1970—passenger cars will be scrapped, or sold wherever there is a market.

This is a matter of general concern. Suppose we had another war, and had to transport troops to camps or seaports. Would they go in trucks, or planes, or cattle cars? Certainly the lack of passenger

INFLATION

T. Coleman Andrews used to collect the income tax and got disgusted doing it; he thereupon resigned and has devoted himself to proving that it is a bad tax. That he is correct in his premise is obvious from the harm that the tax has done to the country, particularly in wiping out the economic independence of the white collar elements, in reducing the middle class to a proletariat, and in opening the doors to a money racketeering which is infinitely worse than bootlegging, although it is hard to make a distinction in degree between one crime and another. The tax evader is a thief even if he saves his conscience by calling himself a tax avoider.

Money racketeering is not done by gangsters or little people. It is strictly a preoccupation of those who have money in large amounts and who get it out of this country to another where it can be converted into property other than currency without paying taxes.

The demoralization of a people starts with uniform living. There is a constant contest between the government and its citizens as to how to handle this particular tax, the people using the word, avoidance; the government referring to it as evasion, and trying to put unpalatable offenders, such as Governor Orval Faubus in jail for alleged infractions.

What T. Coleman Andrews is trying to tell Americans is that the Federal Government since 1929 has taken the American people for nearly 28 times more income tax and for 10 times more social security tax and:

"The cost of living has been more than doubled and is still going up. . . . And the value of the dollar has been reduced to well below 50 cents and is still going down!!!!"

Now this is not just hearsay. This is a statement by a trained accountant who had actually been the Collector of Internal Revenue and who knows what it is about. He has issued a circular to say that inflation is here now and that the peril is upon us, Coleman gives several examples. I shall quote two from him:

"For example, it took $4,806 to provide the same amount of buying power after taxes ($1,975) as $2,000 provided in 1939. Why? Because the income tax on the increase of $2,806 was $755 and $2,051 was required to make up for the toll taken by inflation.

"Thus, if, in 1957, you received $4,000 salary from a job, that paid $2,000 in 1939, your 1957 salary was $806 short of what you needed in order to have as much buying power as the 1939 holder had.

"Or, to take a case where the salary paid in 1939 for the job you held in 1957, or one similar to it . . . let's suppose that the 1939 salary was $2,500. That's halfway between $2,000 and $3,000. A conservative approximation of the 1957 equivalent of a 1939 income of $2,500 can be obtained by adding the 1957 equivalent of a 1939 salary of $2,000 to the 1957 equivalent of a 1939 salary of $500 and dividing the total by two. That would be $4,806 plus $7,370, making a total of $12,176, which, divided by two would give $6,088.

Now, if your salary from this job in 1957 was $5,000, it was $1,088 short of what it needed to be in order to have the same buying power that $2,500 had in 1939."

So what the government does is to issue more bonds which is money and thus the currency is inflated as surely as when the old kings clipped silver off the edge of coins. Inflation is a deadly disease; it is one of the principal causes of the present stock market rise, the speculators hedging against inflation which cannot be done except by purchasing productive land, art objects and diamonds. If it is true that the Russians have found a diamond field of merit, then this gem is not a hedge against inflation because its great value is due to its comparative scarcity which is the result of monopolistic practices by an international cartel that controls prices. Should any country find a top notch diamond field and decide to dump the commodity on the open market, prices would go tumbling.

The peril of inflation is so great that a government would take steps against it, but they are always unpopular steps, because they interfere with spending. And what politician wants to be unpopular? (Copyright, 1958, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

★ Dr. Jordan Says ★

Victim of Migraine Faces Long Program of Treatment

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

A 39-year-old correspondent writes that she has been diagnosed as having migraine headaches. These sensations as she describes them are fairly typical.

"Sometimes," she says, "I get a sensation of a big stone in the middle of my head. Other times my head feels big and heavy and my sense of balance seems off. Again I have a feeling that something is lying on the left side of the head and as if it is pushing through. I have had numbness on the left side of my head too."

In addition to such symptoms as those mentioned by the correspondent, some persons suffer difficulty with vision and many can tell when a headache is on its way before it actually starts by changes in mood or unusual sensations.

There is a strong family tendency to migraine. This does not mean that all children of parents who have migraine headaches will also have them. The exact hereditary pattern has not been traced.

Prevention and treatment of migraine offer difficult problems to physician and patient alike. A Boston physician has suggested that patients with migraine could be divided into three main groups:

1) Those whose attacks are so infrequent that they could be called an unpleasant nuisance.
2) Those whose attacks occur with such frequency or severity that family, business and social life are seriously disturbed.
3) Those whose attacks are so frequent and severe that a state of chronic invalidism is produced.

What he said about treatment is quoted with only slight changes:

"At present there is no magic medicine or formula of treatment that universally 'cures' migraine. The patient is 'not to blame' for having inherited the migraine trait. The pain and misery of the migraine attack are very real and not 'imaginary.'"

"Neither patient, doctor, nor husband (or wife) should be intolerant, but rather all should work for better understanding of each other. The patient and the family have the greater burden on therapy, and the doctor acts as a friendly guide rather than as a 'miracle man.' The whole program requires considerable time, with frequent reviews of progress, temporary setbacks, changes of therapeutic signals, and gradual reduction."

"The most rewarding long-term therapy is concerned with adjusting the patient's way of living to his or her capacities rather than with an endless round of medication. The patient cannot be expected to make all the necessary adjustments overnight. Changes in psychological attitudes become real only through actual practice rather than through verbal instruction."

"There is definite hope for improvement through conscientious effort by both physician and patient, but complete freedom from migraine is rarely achieved by any therapeutic program."

cars would create a real problem. Maybe the armed forces, which have vast stockpiles of almost everything else, ought to add some railroad passenger cars to their collection.

"You Are Not—I'm Bigger"

Washington News

BY PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — There's a lot more to these November elections than deciding which party will control the next Congress and by how much—though that's plenty important.

The whole nature of the Eisenhower program for the next two years will be altered by the election results.

Eisenhower's first term was marked by orthodox Republican retrenchment and reform. When he began his second term with his program of New Republicanism, many of the Old Guard backed away from him. Even the Democratic majority in Congress went somewhat conservative in the economy wave of 1957.

Whether this had anything to do with bringing on the recession is doubtful. But the political effect of the recession was that the Democrats again went liberal. They embarked on spending programs that the White House had to fight off with a more conservative line.

REPUBLICAN HEADQUARTERS here is now campaigning on a charge that Democratic victory in November would bring back the New Deal, the Fair Deal, or worse.

Such a development would again force the Republicans back on the ultra-conservative side. And that might end forever President Eisenhower's dream of making over the GOP into a more modern party, with more progressive ideas.

Just as interesting will be some of the side issues that will determine political trends for the next few years.

The vote in the farm belt states will be worth watching to see whether there is endorsement or rejection of Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson's program.

The GOP line is that farmers are in prosperous condition now, with higher prices and bumper crops.

But a Democratic sweep would almost certainly be followed by proposals for extensive farm legislation revision in the next Congress.

RESULTS ON RIGHT-TO-WORK referendums in the six states of Ohio, Kansas, Colorado, Idaho, California and Washington will probably give the best indication of the union labor vote strength and influence.

By making an issue of union support for Democratic candidates, Republican headquarters in Washington may have alienated the organized labor vote permanently.

Union support is already credited with having given Democrat Edmund S. Muskie victory in Maine's Senate race. This influence should also be watched in three other states where unions are concentrating against incumbent Republican senators. They are Charles E. Potter of Michigan, Barry Goldwater of Arizona and George W. Malone of Nevada.

Political futures for the presidential race will also be made or broken by the 1958 election results.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon—campaigning harder nationally than anyone in the country—has more at stake in this election than any actual candidate this year.

Senator William F. Knowland, running for governor in California, is in much the same predicament. Unless he wins in '58, his prospects for '60 will be considerably dimmed.

THE THIRD REPUBLICAN to watch in this connection is Nelson Rockefeller, running for governor in New York against the incumbent Democrat Averill Harriman.

If Rockefeller squeaks through, as almost the only new face in the GOP hierarchy, he may become the party hope.

On the Democratic side, two candidates to watch are Senators Stuart Symington of Missouri and John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts. If they pile up big majorities in their races for re-election, they will take an early lead over other Democratic presidential hopefuls.

Finally, the success of the Catholic Democratic candidates must be watched as an indication of how Senator Kennedy might run in a presidential contest. Among them are gubernatorial candidates Edmund F. Brown in California, Mike DiSalle in Ohio; senatorial candidates Thomas D'Alesandro in Maryland, Eugene J. McCarthy in Minnesota.

Los Angeles Speech Called President's Best in Politics

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower made the best political speech of his career at Los Angeles this week. It was a great speech because for the first time he outlined clearly the difference between the radicals and the conservatives in America today. If Mr. Eisenhower could have stressed this theme earlier in his Administration, it would have prevented much of the factionalism that has weakened his party. But the significant thing is that the President has definitely accepted the path of sound economics and sound fiscal policy as well as firmness in international affairs as basic Republicanism. He has also supplemented what Vice-President Nixon has been saying—that peace cannot be assured by any policies of surrender and that the way to deal with communism is to stand up to it instead of retreating under its pressures.

"Let's consider a significant fact," said the President. "The Democrat party is not one—but two—political parties with the same name. They unite only once every two years—to wage political campaigns.

"At one extreme is a wing whose campaigns were largely settled in Southern primaries held weeks ago. At the other extreme is the stronger wing, dominated by political radicals. The campaigns of this wing are still going on. These self-styled liberals are the ones who really challenge sane, sound, forward-looking government in the United States. It is against the spread of the radical influence that we are waging this campaign."

Blasts Labor Rackets

The President didn't touch on the issue of compulsory unionization, but he did blast away at labor union racketeering and blamed the Democrats for failing to put through strong enough legislation to cope with corruption in unions. He said:

"My friends—to protect American workers and business men—to conserve strong, clean trade unions—the nation needs a Congress determined to settle this issue. That means America needs a Republican Congress."

The President minced no words in inveighing against Federal control and socialization of industry. He said the radical Democrats are the ones who try to vest more and more authority in the Federal government and "who turn to Federal power even where private power can do the job—to governmental housing where private housing can meet the need—to Federal domination of agriculture rather than trusting to the initiative and freedom of the farmer—to Federal development of nuclear power where private development will best serve the interests of the United States."

That's a complete platform of conservatism, almost in itself and the President didn't pull any political punches as he added:

"As a result, the opposition record is one of ever higher taxes, of dollars worth 50 cents, of sky-high prices, of an economy harassed into producing fewer jobs, chronic unemployment, labor strife and fear of the future."

Divided Rule

As Mr. Eisenhower sketched his conception of the two rival wings in the Democratic party, he concluded with this statement: "One is spendthrift—the other conservative. In short, our opposition can offer America only deadlocked government—government that wages war on itself."

This mention of "deadlocked government" is somewhat belated because there has been no question about the political opposition which the President has since 1954 encountered from a Congress controlled by the Democratic party. He, therefore, declared:

"This campaign, then, gives us a critical choice. Either we choose Left-wing government or sensible, forward-looking government—spendthrift government or responsible government—overpowering Federal government or government kept close to home frustrated, stymied government—or efficient government able to keep its promise to America."

Woes Conservatives

The President obviously is endeavoring to woo conservative Republicans back to the fold. His speech is the kind they like to hear. Some will remain skeptical, wondering if the precepts will be fulfilled in future policies. The chances are they will be. For it is apparent that Mr. Eisenhower is himself somewhat disillusioned by "modern Republicanism," if by this is meant an imitation of the New Deal and the Fair Deal in their spending habits that disregard the cost to the taxpayer.

The President has a good chance to reunite the factions in his party in the next two years. Irrespective of the outcome of the present Congressional campaign, Mr. Eisenhower has blazed the trail for the 1960 contest. He has cast his die on the side of truly liberal and progressive doctrine which means sound conservatism as opposed to radicalism and socialism. (Reproduction Rights Reserved.)

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

A colleague of mine, named Marie Torre and tootsome by her picture in the Herald Tribune, has been thrust into the status of guinea pig in a suit in the U. S. courts to determine whether she had a legal right to refuse to tell a plaintiff in a lawsuit who the person was who gave her information offensive to that plaintiff. The plaintiff, of course, claims to have been grievously hurt by the matter complained of. Her name is Judy Garland and my hearsay on Judy Garland depicts her as a model of personal propriety and professional class—in short, a combination of Clare Boothe Luce in the one aspect and the immortal Mary Pickford in the other. The cash value of her reputation is impermissible but probably colossal and the injury to her feelings may not be discounted on account of her long hearing and series of misfortunes down to the date of the faux pas that Miss Torre put in the paper.

Miss Torre got ten days for contempt. She is appealing to the Supreme Court.

With this preparation might you care to hear my opinion that Miss Torre has no privilege because no journalist has any mandate or license from the public or any public authority? (Be it noted further in these brackets that the privilege of lawyers, doctors and clergy, though a mere presumption bolstered by public acquiescence, is nevertheless a reality often invoked by the wicked for wicked ends.)

There are many societies of editors, publishers and ink-stained wretches who hold frequent conventions, mostly in New York, with forays into Washington for the jovial obsequies of the Gridiron Club and levees by the President. They include a "fraternity" of brothers about as intimate, harmonious and idealistic as a casual selection of an equal number from the New York phone book. Their own evidence. But unfortunately, I cherish as a personal gift, naïvely depicts this august band in its hoosier infancy as a collegiate version of Huck Finn's venture in Arcanum.

But there are no qualifications that a journalist is bound to meet; no moral or intellectual standards that any authority may hold him to. Nor is there any slightest authority in the Constitution or law for the common assumption that the press holds credentials from the people and/or the government. Any person may be a journalist and the roster of the most prosperous and famous pundits of the era since the first World War is sufficient to discredit any claim that the magnates of this raffish impudence have been diligent to deserve privilege or even respect. They have included prizefighters, ballplayers and malignant gutter-snipes from the dark doorways of the New York Forties. The Saturday Evening Post has selectively published biographies of George Raft, Eleanor Roosevelt, and Mickey Cohen in a wanton affront to the standards of George Horace Lorimer. And Marshall Field took a wild fling at "the newspaper game" in New York with a filthy exploit parade in the Communist line in which he wallowed in depravity so gross that in the long run even the Reds turned pale and queasy, unswallowed and slunk away.

In a visit with John Fox of Boston, who bought the grubby but historic and influential Boston Post and lost it in a weird political whipsaw, I heard this clever alumnus of Harvard Law naively declare that his personal decision to support Jack Kennedy instead of Henry Lodge in 1952 elected Kennedy and changed the course of destiny. Agreed that Fox, a devotee of Joe McCarthy, did defeat Lodge by opposing McCarthy's earliest attack on Alger Hiss, and waiving the proposition that Fox changed the course of destiny, I pounced on the fact that he, a mere financial adventurer, by smearing black ink on white paper undoubtedly did have great power over public opinion. We agreed that, somehow, the printed word has a fearsome power over the mind of man. But, nimble as Fox is and a credit to the instruction of Felix Frankfurter, whom he abhors, he could not justify this freak, nor even explain it except to say that people are indomitably stupid. They believe the printed word by whomsoever published.

Mr. Fox, himself, has suffered injustice by the same device, but we concluded that it were worse than ever to submit the press to license and regulation.

So, Miss Torre has no "privilege." But she could assert with perfect logic and unassailable truth that it is not her business to help a litigant advance a lawsuit. Let Miss Garland dig up her own evidence. But unfortunately, the federal courts in their advanced corruption wrought by judges in collusion with the racket of the bar have created a law for the financial profit of their evil trade which offers every one of us a choice between jail for contempt or difficult, degrading service in the role of rat or squealer in suits that often are a process of extortion by blackmail under judicial subpoena.

Why Not Let Him Bite?

MARION, III. (AP)—McKinley McCuan paid more attention to swatting a wasp than driving his car and was fined by Justice of the Peace Elmer Farmer when he ran his car into another car. He wasn't stung. Or was he?

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

A half a century ago auto renting was no novelty, according to the Kingston Freeman and Journal of Feb. 19, 1909. Advertisement from the Central Garage of 748-750 Broadway reads: "Automobiles to rent—Locomobile, Buicks and Maxwells." O. M. Kennedy had the Reo and Overland Agency at 742 Broadway. They had a 1909 Reo—Model G. Runabout 10 to 12 Horsepower for $500 FOB Lansing, top was extra. Model C Roadster with 20 to 22 H.P. was $1,000 FOB Lansing. Top was included in the price. There was also a Model D Touring Car, 20 to 22 H.P., priced at $1,000 which I think sat five or more. Those cars in restored or good condition would be worth a small fortune today. Just think if someone put away 10 or 12 such cars in a good place for 50 years, like folks do good stocks or bonds. But who thought of it then.

When someone bought a car in those days that made news too, as following item reads: Judge G. D. B. Hasbrouck has purchased from Forsyth and Davis a handsome 40 horse power Studebaker touring car which was delivered today. It has graceful lines and absolute quiet motor. This was in an Oct. 15, 1909 issue.

Another item at this time of the year interested me: "City Clerk Dayton Murray issued following hunters' licenses. Abram Rappleyea, 55 Gill Street; Frank Stone, 57 Gill Street; William P. Osterhoudt, Lucas Avenue; Fred Lawrence, North Street; Amasa J. Ormerod, E. Strand; Peter L. Bonesteel, 139 Down Street. "I remember the Ormerod restaurant in later years, they had the best rice pudding and other foods there. It was a very fine place to eat at it catered to those working in Cornell's, at the banks, businessmen and professional men of Rondout. Lunch was only 25 cents, meat soup, vegetables, bread, butter, dessert and coffee.

There is a small one column advertisement in that Oct. 15, 1909 issue reading: Lasher's at 202 and a half Wall Street, Free Delivery. Good corned beef at five cents a pound. New lemons at 10 cents a dozen, eight cents a quart for new cranberries. Large head of cabbage five cents each. three large baskets of grapes for a quarter. 30 cents a dozen for Ulster County eggs. Stee lamb eight and 10 cents a pound. Pork chops, 16 cents. Homemade frankfurters 10 cents a pound. Porterhouse sirloin steak or round steak 14 cents a pound.

Sheeley, the real estate man, had bargains too: $1,000 in cash bought 20 acre farm on a hill above Hurley. Buildings were good, lots of fruit and good water. He had a place in Kingston for $2,000 with an acre of land and a 7 room house, barn and shed. All set to fruit. He had another place in Kingston for $1,550, located centrally between Downs and Elmen-dorf Streets which had a six room house, three pantries and a summer kitchen. Fruit and a well by the door. Near all the factories and railroad.

Another item from same paper: "Capt. Ulster Davis presented to the Rondout Club a section of the port rail of the Clermont which was smashed in the collision with the Hendrick Hudson in New York bay the day the boats started for the city. The piece of rail presented to the club is about four feet long and its condition indicates that the Clermont was hard hit.

There is also mention in this paper the brilliant display of aurora borealis beginning at 9 o'clock on Tuesday, "the northern heavens were ablaze with darting streaks of phosphorescent light."

Farm Bureau Kitchen Conference Meeting

A meeting of a Farm Bureau Conference discussion group was held on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Denkensohn, Accord.

Sam Warush was a guest and the topic of discussion was town assessments. At present three part-time assessors are elected in the town of Rochester. The possibility of hiring one full-time assessor was discussed. Another suggestion was that of re-evaluating the whole town by an outside company. It was thought that this would be very expensive.

Plans were made to meet with the entire Town Board to discuss these problems further.

The following people were present: Mr. and Mrs. Mike Boice, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Denkensohn, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald DeWitt, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Warush.

Refreshments were served following the discussion.

Tiny Baby Saved

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — A team of doctors and nurses has won a fight for the life of a baby claimed to be the smallest ever to survive.

Teresa Toner, nicknamed Penny, weighed only 1 pound 6 ounces when she was born 14 weeks prematurely at a Downpatrick hospital Sept. 11.

She was rushed to the Royal Maternity Hospital in Belfast and placed in an incubator. She has been there ever since.

Today the baby weighs almost two pounds, is 13½ inches long.

Doctors hope she'll be home for Christmas.

Penny is the seventh premature child born to Mrs. Rosaleen Toner, 32, wife of a postman. Four of the babies died after birth.

Not a Dream

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—Oralia Delgado told police she woke up screaming, thinking she felt a hand on her face. She dismissed it as a bad dream and went back to sleep. In the morning she found burglars had ripped out a screen and made off with a purse from near her bed.

Pie Still in Sky for 99 PC of Russians

Most Families Live in One Room, Cynical Youths Eager About U. S.

By ROY ESSOYAN
Associated Press Staff Writer

Forty-one years after the Russian Revolution the pie is still in the sky for 99 per cent of the Soviet people.

The way the Russians feel about it is illustrated by one of their anecdotes:

One Soviet citizen says things are going to be great—every Russian will have a private jet plane by 1960.

"What do I want a jet for?" a friend asks.

"Don't be a fool," the first man says. "When Pravda reports there are eggs in Vladivostok you jump into your jet and go to Vladivostok."

The Russians have made impressive strides in housing and consumer goods since Stalin died. Drive into Moscow from any direction and your view is blocked by uninspiring but massive construction projects. And GUM, the biggest department store, has a window full of high-heeled shoes.

Must Wait for Housing
But 99 per cent of Moscow's residents haven't a hope of getting a new apartment in the next few years. Most live one family to a room, sharing a four-burner gas stove and bathroom with three or four other families. And it takes months of waiting to buy an ordinary attractive pair of shoes let alone high heels.

On the surface, Moscow looks a great deal better than it did three years ago. There are more goods. Clothes are still shapeless and drab. But last year the government put out a neat raglan-sleeve raincoat in tan and navy blue. It has improved the street appearance of the Soviet male as nothing else in 41 years.

Even Warsaw is a riot of color and revelry compared with Moscow.

Lineup at Stores

Everything's crowded in Moscow. The streets are a sea of gray humanity. It's a fight to get into the stores. The restaurants are nearly always crowded. People hover outside every theater, movie, opera house and sports stadium clogging tickets. Tickets to most amusements are allotted by party or trade union organization. The public gets the leftovers.

There are lines for nearly everything in Moscow, from buses to streetcars to the pop and ice cream vendor on the corner. In the better stocked grocery stores the lines are three deep.

Once at GUM I saw a line of several hundred people. I asked women near the end what they were waiting for. They weren't too sure. It turned out to be cheap Chinese tablecloths. The line starts forming at dawn, two or three hours before the store opens.

Not Enough Stores

There aren't enough stores, theaters or stadiums to go around. As long as the government owns them all, it would be poor business to open more to compete with one another.

A family budget would stagger an American housewife.

Rent runs less than 5 per cent of income, or 30 to 60 rubles. The ruble is worth 10 cents at the tourist rate.

Medical care is free, if you can spend days waiting your turn at a state clinic, or work your way through the cots that line corridors of the average hospital.

Vacations at state sanatoria are free or cut rate if you have a good job, work hard or have influence.

The bulk of the Soviet family budget goes on food. Most Russian families, with everyone working, have money to spare.

Can't Afford Luxuries

They can't afford to buy anything as luxurious as clothes regularly, so they spend it on amusements, or more food. Every year or so they splurge on a coat for Ivan or a pair of shoes for Galina.

The Soviet Union has produced a generation of cynics, and the most cynical are its youth.

An American in Moscow soon finds that 40 years of hothouse breeding has not created an unthinking robot and stifled human curiosity, skepticism or ideals.

But this may still turn out to be a discouraging discovery. The cynicism of youth is no direct threat to the regime. It is not of the sort that moves mountains.

Curious About U. S.

Most young Russians have a consuming curiosity about the world outside, especially the United States.

They don't believe most of what they're told—that's propaganda, and they've built up an immunity to propaganda—but they have little to fill the holes.

They pick up the Voice of America—it comes booming out of tenement windows in Moscow, Leningrad and Tiflis—and they button-hole tourists for scraps of information.

A Lot of Resentment

Moscow radio drones out its messages of hate, dressed in words of peace, but Russians you talk to couldn't care less. They're far more interested in the price of shoes in New York.

Unquestionably, many young Russians accept the party line—hook and sinker. They are the 10 per cent or so who end up with the good education and know which side of their bread gets the butter. Others, at the other end of the social spectrum, are too busy earning their bread to think too hard, but not too busy to bear resentment.

Patrolman, Two Children Are Shot; Wife Is Suicide

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — The wife of a Buffalo policeman shot and killed her husband and two children and then committed suicide in their home Tuesday.

Authorities said the woman, Mrs. Mildred Biddeman, 36, had been undergoing treatment for a nervous breakdown. Last January she was committed to a hospital for psychiatric examination but was released after 10 days.

Killed were her husband, Patrolman Edward J. Biddeman, 36, and the couple's children Edward Jr., 5, and Maureen, 8.

Police found the bodies when a patrol car was sent to Biddeman's ground floor flat to see why the patrolman had not reported for work at 5 p. m.

Biddeman and the children were in their beds. Mrs. Biddeman was lying on the kitchen floor. Her husband's .38 caliber service revolver lay on top of her body.

Authorities said the family had been dead for at least 14 hours.

Buffalo GM Workers To Vote on Agreement

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — Workers at General Motors' Harrison Radiator Division plant in Buffalo meet today to vote on terms of a local agreement.

United Auto Workers negotiators Tuesday agreed to end a 19-day strike by about 1,300 workers.

Talks at two other General Motors plants are still in progress. Strikes at two other GM plants in this area have already been settled.

A national agreement between GM and the UAW was reached Oct. 2 but the union authorized locals to strike over local issues.

Dies Under Tractor

NUNDA, N. Y. (AP) — Lyn E. Barber, 67, was fatally injured Tuesday when a tractor he was driving overturned and burned pinning him underneath. Barber was working on his farm in this Livingston County village.

IMPORTANT NOTICE to the GENERAL PUBLIC affecting the well-being, health, and welfare of DOGS and CATS

We are pleased to announce that we are now prepared to supply in adequate quantities a Superior Food for all Dogs and Cats, which we can certify to be of Unusual Excellence in the matters of Taste, Nourishment, Appearance, and Aroma. We call this most desirable pet product FRENDO Dog and Cat Food, and would like to enlighten you on how we came to manufacture it.

Our family Company has for some time (97 years now, to be exact) been engaged in the processing, packing, and purveying of Fine Meats and Meat products to discriminating purchasers of Superior Foods.

Some years ago, one of our Customers asked the Forst who was then in charge of our Company to prepare an equally Outstanding Food especially for his favorite Dog — and his Wife's doted-on Cat. (Some of the Old Settlers who live in the Hudson Valley in and around Kingston, N. Y., where our Plant is located, suggest that this Customer was Rip Van Winkle. Because this has never been reliably proven, I discount the Theory, altho it is a well-known Fact that Mr. Winkle was especially fond of his Faithful Dog. I have no idea how Madame Van Winkle felt about her Cat.)

Not being familiar with the Diet requirements of Dogs and Cats, my cautious Ancestor declined the request. Since that time, however, our laboratory people have conducted much Diligent Research on the subject of Dog and Cat Nutrition in Consultation with highly qualified Doctors of Veterinary Medicine.

We are now satisfied that we can, with complete assurance, place our Valued "FORST FORMOST" Seal on this Most Excellent Pet Food. Our opinion is confirmed by the Inspectors of the Government of these United States, who check the manufacture of FRENDO, as they do all of our products, since we prepare and pack FRENDO in the same plant where all our other Quality Meats are handled.

We hasten to call to Your attention the Fact that FRENDO Dog and Cat Food Costs no more (and in many cases Less) than other Dog and Cat foods now on the Market.

FRENDO may now be purchased at the establishments (Groceries and Supermarkets) where You normally purchase Food supplies for Your Family. May we suggest that You ask for FRENDO on the occasion of Your next shopping trip; Your Dog and Cat will be most grateful if you do. (We will be pleased also.)

U.S. Again Acts To Seek Release Of Two in Cuba

HAVANA (AP)—For the second time in four months, the U.S. Consulate in Santiago today sought the release of Americans kidnapped by rebels in eastern Cuba.

The American Embassy in Havana said Ambassador Earl E. T. Smith had instructed Consul Park Wollam "to take a firm position in his contact with the rebels."

Two Americans and seven Cubans were abducted from a Texaco refinery near Santiago Monday and taken to rebel hide-outs in the jungled mountains. The rebels told the Texaco manager they would be returned shortly; the embassy said.

The Americans are Charles R. Bennett, 35, the refinery supervisor of maintenance and construction, whose wife and year-old son live in Santiago; and Kenneth H. Drewes, 40, of Joliet, Ill., machine shop foreman, whose wife also lives in Santiago.

It was not immediately learned whether the kidnappings were ordered by rebel leader Fidel Castro, who has been waging guerrilla warfare against President Fulgencio Batista for the last two years from jungle camps in the Sierra Maestra Mountains west of Santiago.

$1 Turns Into $3.401

SEATTLE (AP)—An unknown parishioner made a record-breaking contribution to the St. Francis of Assisi Church in suburban Seahurst last Sunday.

It was a dollar bill. But it turned out to be the "lucky" one in a local newspaper contest.

The pastor, the Rev. William G. Quick, exchanged the bill for $3.401.

First Woman Minister Of Presbyterian Church

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—Miss Ella-Jean Streeter of Caldwell will soon become the first woman minister of the New Jersey Synod of the Presbyterian Church.

The Synod announced yesterday at its 136th annual meeting that her application for ordination had been approved by its committee on candidates and examinations.

Miss Streeter, a native of Fulton, N. Y., has been director of Christian Education at the First Presbyterian Church at Caldwell.

She will be the first minister in her family. Miss Streeter said that her interest in church affairs had been fostered by her mother, who was superintendent of a church school, and her father, who served on many boards of the First Presbyterian Church of Fulton.

Miss Streeter will be the sixth woman to become a minister of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. since the church constitution was changed in 1956 to allow ordination of women.

She attended Mount Holyoke College and Yale University Divinity School.

Details of her ordination will be arranged by the church's Newark Presbytery.

Detroit Polio Now 602

DETROIT (AP)—Four new polio cases were reported in Detroit Tuesday bringing the city's epidemic case load this year to 602 with 19 deaths. Wayne county, outside Detroit, recorded two new cases for a total of 186, with one death.

Cosmic Radiation Will Determine Length of Cruise

WASHINGTON (AP)—The first space man must cruise within 600 miles of the earth or zoom more than 2,000 miles up to escape a layer of deadly cosmic radiation, a noted rocket scientist said today.

Dr. Ernst Stuhlinger of the Army Ballistic Missile Agency presented those estimates in a speech prepared for a convention of the Association of the U.S. Army.

Above 600 miles, he said, radiation is up to 10,000 times greater than it is nearer the earth, and this area can be penetrated only for limited periods.

The German-born scientist based his estimates on radio reports from the Army's Explorer satellites, none of which exceeded 2,000 miles in orbital height.

He made no mention of this month's Air Force moon rocket, shot to a height of nearly 80,000 miles.

Preliminary information from that shot indicates the radiation may increase in intensity to a height of 5,000 or 6,000 miles and begin to diminish about 10,000 miles above the earth. A State University of Iowa scientist said, however, these reports were premature.

Dr. Stuhlinger said that, based on analyses of reports from the American satellites, the radiation belt may peter out at about 2,000 miles altitude. He said that if this is proven true, a space man could journey through the forbidden zone if he spent no more than an hour or so in the area.

Drop in Sales but Increase in Earnings

FULTON, N. Y. (AP)—Sealright-Oswego Falls Corp. reports a drop in sales but an increase in earnings for the first nine months of 1958 compared with the same period last year.

For the January-September period, sales totaled $35,771,383 this year and $36,840,890 last year.

Earnings for the nine-month period were $1,685,264, or $2.35 per share, for 1958 and $1,638,588, or $2.48 per share, last year.

The company said in its report Tuesday that about 17 cents of the 1958 dividend represented what was termed non-recurring income.

Java Quake Reported

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Reports reached Jakarta today of an earthquake in central and east Java which killed seven persons and injured 1,856 in the town of Blitar.

The quake earlier this week destroyed 95 houses, heavily damaged 206 and slightly damaged 51, the reports said. The major cities of Surabaya, Malang and Jogjakarta also were shaken.

Rakosi Reported Dying

VIENNA (AP)—The independent Vienna newspaper Die Presse reported today that Matyas Rakosi, Stalinist dictator of Hungary until 1956, is dying in a Russian sanatorium.

Quoting diplomatic sources, the paper said his doctors have given up hope for Rakosi, 66, who reportedly suffered a heart attack recently after a long period of failing health.

Proof of Birth Necessary When Seeking Benefits

Veterans were reminded today that when applying for Social Security benefits they must be able to furnish proof of birth.

Charles L. Culver, counselor of the New York State Division of Veterans Affairs and Howard C. Shurtler, director of the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency stated today that when a birth certificate or baptismal certificate is not available, a veterans' military record or insurance policy which show his age or date of birth may be used as valid proof.

They further said that when a veteran, regardless of age, finds that he is without a valid document showing his date of birth, he should immediately secure verification of his age from his military records or National Service Life Insurance records so that neither he nor his survivors will encounter difficulties when eligibility for Social Security payments occur.

For information on how to secure proof of birth from the record holding departments of the various branches of the Armed Forces, NSLI records, or from other sources, veterans should contact the New York State Division of Veterans Affairs office at the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency at 32 Main Street, Kingston or the branch offices in Ellenville, Highland, Kerhonkson and Saugerties.

SAUL SAYS:
"Why do they want to send a rocket to the moon?" asked little Joey the other day.
For a minute I was stopped for an answer. You know, it's hard to answer a child's question in language he understands—and then I'm not a scientist, which makes it doubly hard in this case. So I had to tell him about the need for more knowledge about the planets and the stars and how important it is to know as much as we can about the earth and her neighbors. This sounded pretty good to him and I thought that the matter was closed until he asked me "Do people live up there?"
I just had to say "I don't know" and when a Daddy says "I don't know" he's in a bad way.
If you have any questions about tires for your fall and winter driving needs, please bring them in here. Those questions I know I can answer — it's only that Joey who stumps me.

Mrs. Vandemark Dies at Age 110

Another of the county's oldest residents, Mrs. Johanna Vandemark, reported to be 110 years of age, died at Tyler Convalescent Home, 59 Gill Street, this morning.

She was the second centenarian to die in Kingston this week. Miss Emily Goeller, 105, died at Albany Avenue Nursing Home Sunday night.

Mrs. Vandemark had been a resident at the nursing home since 1951.

While there she talked at length to Mrs. Bessie Tyler of her early childhood in Ellenville where she was born — half Indian, half Negro. She told Mrs. Tyler that she was 11 years old in 1860, the first year of the Civil War. She claimed her birthday to be Sept. 10.

She related stories of her life on the farm where she was born recalling that she cut wood and once built a log fence. She left Ellenville in her early 20s and worked for many years as a domestic in the Kingston-Ellenville area. Until the time of her death she ate heartily, enjoying a breakfast of eggs, buns and coffee.

Mrs. Vandemark is survived by a granddaughter, Mrs. Ella McKeever of Long Island, and a great grandson, Jesse King in the army.

Funeral services will be held Friday 2 p. m. from the Everett Hodge Funeral Home, 21 Franklin Street. Friends may call at the funeral home from 7 to 9 p. m. Thursday. Burial will be in Wiltwyck Cemetery.

School Consolidation Ordered

civic association fought consolidation all the way, even prior to the referendum. Following the referendum, it based its main opposition on the grounds of "moral principle," guing that the sanctity of the vote should not be thrown down.

Mayor Edwin F. Radel of Kingston called for the resignations of the seven members of the board who voted in favor of consolidation. He was supported by 12 of the 13 members of the Common Council.

Dr. Allen ruled that he could not sign the order for consolidation because of the principle involved. However, he took a strong position in favor of consolidation as the best educational system for the area and advised consolidation leaders here that if they could show the community really wanted an enlarged city district he would reverse himself and sign the order.

Held Local Hearing

On Oct. 1 a hearing was held at the George Washington School by Dr. Allen and his staff at which 35 persons, speaking as representatives of organizations or as individuals, presented statements. The hearing, which lasted three hours, was overwhelmingly in favor of consolidation.

It was on the basis of this hearing that Dr. Allen resolved to reverse himself and sign the consolidation order.

In his letter today to President Herzog, he outlined the various actions and steps which led to the signing of the order, especially those which followed his decision of July 2 in which he declined to sign a final order at that time and remanded the problem back to the local board of education for further consideration.

Dr. Allen reported that the local board notified him on Sept. 4 that it strongly reaffirmed its original action in giving consent to the consolidation and urged the education commissioner or his assistant in resolving the pressing educational problem in the Kingston area.

Allen Memorandum

In his memorandum accompanying the order Dr. Allen stated:

"I concluded that a public hearing giving everyone who was concerned an opportunity to advise me in person of his views or the views of those whom he represented, would be the best way for carrying out the board's desire to ascertain the wishes of the people with respect to consolidation and also informing me fully concerning public sentiment. Hence, in a letter dated Sept. 11, 1958, I asked that the superintendent give notice of the hearing to be held on Oct. 1. It was requested that all organizations and individuals wishing to be heard should notify me not later than Sept. 29, 1958. The hearing was held as scheduled.

Evidence for Plan

"I have now reviewed the record of the hearing including the presentations made at that time and those subsequently filed in my office. The evidence thus assembled is clearly in favor of consolidation. Therefore, feeling that the board's intention has been carried out and that there is strong sentiment in favor of the board's position, I have decided to issue the consolidation order, as authorized by law."

Under the provisions of Section 1526 of the Education Law, the Commissioner of Education is empowered to issue a preliminary order laying out an area to be consolidated with a city school district. An election is then called in the outlying area and the voters are given an opportunity to determine whether or not the consolidation should become effective. The board of education in the city school district is empowered by law to speak for such district as to whether the area should be accepted for consolidation. Upon receipt of the approval of the voters of the area involved and the consent of the board of education, the commissioner of education is authorized to issue a final order which makes the consolidation effective.

On March 5, 1958, an election was held within the outside territory and the voters, by 2,166 to 763, indicated their desire that the consolidation become effective.

On April 2, 1958 and then again Sept. 4, 1958, the board of Education certified to Dr. Allen its consent for such an order.

In his memorandum, Dr. Allen reiterated his statement that he was "fully convinced the consolidation is in the best educational interests of the entire area."

Order Lists Districts

Under the terms of the order, Union Free School Districts Nos. 4, 7 and 8 of the Town of Ulster, Union Free School District No. 4 of the Towns of Hurley and Ulster, Common School Districts Nos. 1, 2 and 6 of the Town of Ulster, Common School District No. 3 of the Towns of Ulster and Saugerties, Common School District No. 5 of the Towns of Ulster and Kingston, Common School Districts Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 7, 8 and 14 of Esopus, Common School District No. 6 of the Towns of Esopus, Rosendale and New Paltz, Common School Districts Nos. 2, 4 and 6 of the Town of Rosendale, Common School District No. 3 of the Towns of Rosendale and Ulster, Common School District No. 1 of the Town of Kingston, Common School District No. 3 of the Towns of Hurley, Marlborough and Rosendale, and Common School District No. 7 of the Towns of Woodstock and Hurley are consolidated with the city school district of Kingston.

Herzog Pleased

President Robert Herzog of the Kingston Board of Education said the board was "very pleased" with Allen's decision and felt that consolidation would result in the best possible educational system for children of Kingston and outlying districts.

He said he felt confident that those people who have not been completely satisfied with the consolidation plan would become better pleased, even enthusiastic as they observe the program in operation, and that consolidation would produce advantages, not only in education, but culturally, economically and taxwise.

Dr. Earl Soper, superintendent of Kingston public schools, told The Freeman that he and the instructional staff would "bend every effort to realize under consolidation the best educational program for all the boys and girls in the area."

"We have faith that if we have the cooperation of all the good people of the area we can have in Kingston and the rural districts an educational program of which all citizens will be proud."

Decision Elates Vines

John Vines, chairman of the rural advisory committee for consolidation, commented as follows:

"I'm quite elated with the commissioner's decision. I have no doubt that his decision came only after a careful and thorough study of all issues involved. We in the rural areas naturally hope that all parties concerned will now unite to work for the one common goal, namely the education of all the children involved."

"We in the rural areas, have been, and will be, anxious and ready to serve in any capacity to make consolidation a success. We believe this decision to be not only a victory for one faction over another but rather a victory for education and the future of our children."

"May I publicly extend my thanks and appreciation to all those people on the rural committee who have given of their time and effort to make consolidation possible. While our problems have just begun, I have no doubt that the same spirit of cooperation will exist with the city, and social affairs for many years enjoyed, in the religious, cultural and civic activities of the community."

Notes Rural Voice

Arthur H. Whithall of Rifton, co-chairman of the rural advisory committee and chairman of a special group which presented the rural case at a hearing before Dr. Allen in Albany, told The Freeman that he was "naturally, very pleased," that he felt the "voice of the people of the rural areas, by banding together and taking action, has helped to bring consolidation to a successful conclusion," that he was glad Dr. Allen had "finally seen the light."

Whithall said he thought consolidation would produce a better educational system and that "when the hubbub is over" the community would realize it had gained a great deal in education.

Sabin, Kurt Comment

Robert L. Sabin, president of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce, said he was personally "extremely happy" in the commissioner's decision and that, based on the position of the 21-man executive committee of the Chamber, he was "officially very happy." The Chamber conducted a poll of its membership which showed 69 per cent in favor of consolidation.

Albert C. Kurdt, manager of the Kingston Area Chamber of Commerce, speaking as an individual, said he was personally delighted with the commissioner's decision and felt it was in the best interests of the area and would serve the children "to everyone's mutual advantage. It is certainly in the best interests of the future of our entire area."

Perry Asks What

ty was not apparently interested in a meeting of the aldermen when they were due to act on authorizing money as they had in the previous administration. The aldermen, he noted, were at a recessed meeting to act on some $95,000.

"I would say it is a credit to this administration," said Alderman James K. Ryan (D), 10th Ward, majority leader, and William K. Bodekewer (D) Ninth Ward, agreed with him.

Alfred J. P. Seitz, of 236 Clinton Avenue, and Bernie Singer, of 95 Washington Avenue, of known interest last year in the Economy Party, were at the meeting, but had nothing to say in reply to Perry's question.

The Economy Party in the 1957 local election scored 2,702 votes for Worthington L. Rider, its candidate for mayor and 2,127 votes for Charles M. Rinschler, its choice for alderman-at-large.

Edwin F. Radel, however, Democratic-Liberal Party candidate for mayor polled 5,907 votes and Harold L. Kaye, Democratic-Liberal choice for alderman-at-large scored 5,877. Republicans, Bernhard S. Kramer, candidate for mayor, and William S. Keyser for council president, scored 4,883 and 4,481 respectively.

Schools will be closed Friday due to Southeastern Zone Teachers Conference in New York City.

Mrs. Leroy Osterhoudt, a resident of this place for many years and a member and active worker in the Kripplebush church, died in the home of her daughter in Poughkeepsie Saturday.

Relyea Assails

said, "is the complete answer to Koenig's irresponsible and obviously political appearance before this board at its last meeting."

Relyea issued the following statement today in answer to Koenig's charges:

"At the last meeting of the Board of Supervisors, Joseph Koenig, the temporary incumbent of the office of county treasurer and present Democratic candidate for election to that office, appeared before the board and read a letter in which he purported to criticize the late Albert N. Cook, former county treasurer, for certain banking practices which Mr. Cook had followed while county treasurer."

Koenig charged that on certain isolated occasions Mr. Cook had deposited county funds in one particular bank in amounts exceeding the sums which the board had authorized to be deposited in that bank.

Charges Politics

"The appearance of the Democratic candidate before the board was obviously political and was intended to create in the public mind two entirely false impressions, namely 1) that county funds had been jeopardized and 2) that loose banking practices had been followed by its predecessor."

"A subsidiary third purpose was an attempt to convince banks, located in areas outside of Kingston, that they had been treated unfairly by the former county treasurer in not having been given their share of county deposits. In other words, it was intended, in part, as a political appeal for the 'bankers' vote."

"The fundamental difficulty with Mr. Koenig's position is that he does not recognize the difference between a mere check-collecting transaction and a regular deposit. At several times each year the county receives from the state, very large checks, for instance, state checks for state-aid to schools which, in amount, exceed the amount of deposit which any one bank is authorized to receive."

Outlines Transaction

"When such checks arrive they must be 'cleared' in order that the proceeds can immediately be disbursed to the various school districts in the county."

"On such occasions, the checks are sent to a local bank depository and as soon as they have 'cleared' the bank on which they are drawn, the proceeds are immediately disbursed to the various school districts in Ulster County. These school districts, in turn, deposit the funds in their own local bank. The whole transaction is completed in a matter of a few days."

"As a practical matter, there is no other way in which these large state checks can be handled. This is true, because, to handle them, as regular deposits, the bank of deposit, would, under the law, be required to post securities with the county equal in value to the amount of the checks."

"No bank would be willing to go to that trouble and expense for the mere privilege of depositing the county's favor of collecting for it a few of its large state checks. There is absolutely no benefit to the bank in handling these transactions—on the contrary, it is merely a headache to them."

Democratic Control

"State Department of Audit and Control, which is under Democratic control, has annually checked this banking procedure and has never criticized it. The examiners of the state and federal banking departments, as well as those of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, have likewise checked the practice. No one has ever before questioned the procedure."

"Indeed, there is no sound basis for criticism. After all, no county treasurer can tear a state check in half and put part of it in one bank, and part in another. The latest audit report of the Democratic State Department of Audit and Control was sent to the late Albert N. Cook, former county treasurer, by Arthur Levitt, the present Democratic state comptroller under date of June 24, 1957."

"It is on file in the county treasurer's office, but apparently Mr. Koenig has not yet read it. At page five of that report the Democratic State Department of Audit and Control fully approves, after due examination by its examiners, the amount and form of securities deposited by local banks depositories to protect county funds. I quote the exact language of the Democratic state comptroller from page five of that report:

"Depository Undertakings—All of the designated depositories had furnished securities pursuant to Section 212 of the county law. These securities were viewed by an examiner during the course of the examination, except those held in escrow which were verified by certificates from the banks holding such securities."

"The foregoing is the complete answer to Koenig's irresponsible and obviously political appearance before this board at its last meeting."

Mayor Lists Two More Traffic Signals

Mayor Edwin F. Radel today noted two traffic signal improvements slated for major intersections.

One will be a single red unit installed at Delaware Avenue facing north-bound traffic on Broadway. It will synchronize with the red phase of the Broadway-East Street light, and "is intended to allow free movement of traffic turning left or right into Broadway from Delaware Avenue."

A flashing type light with red and amber is due to be installed in the near future to regulate traffic at Delaware and Hasbrouck avenues.

The two signals, he said, "are a minor part" of a program to modernize controls throughout the city, as announced earlier in the year and planned with aid of the Common Council's traffic committee.

Officer . . .

was responsible, if there was any negligence.

In the affidavit, which could not be found for Monday's trial session, but was produced last night (it was reportedly in a file not at police headquarters) Safarty claimed that some dresses reported stolen after the burglary March 23, 1957 were still at the plant the following May 11.

Safarty's affidavit also charged that a portion of the dresses were not made up at the time of the burglary, but were sent out later as good dresses, and that the plant received payment twice.

There was no mention during the trial about any insurance having been paid on the dresses reported stolen.

Safarty was questioned at length by Corporation Counsel William A. Kelly, representing the police board and Attorney N. LeVan Haver, who represents Murphy. He was vague on the actual count of some of the styles of dresses reported stolen.

Called Krom

Patrolman Krom, a policeman five years, said Safarty called him to his home about a week after the burglary, and told him the dresses were not stolen, and that he could draw a diagram of where they were in the plant.

Krom said he probably was called because his wife knew Mrs. Safarty, testified that he went to the home of Deputy Chief Murphy, who was off duty, to tell him, because he was the senior lieutenant of the police department. Krom said they both rode to Safarty's home in a patrol car that Murphy had called from police headquarters.

He said he believed Safarty said he would make a statement. He added that neither talked to him again, according to his recollection, and could not say whether Murphy had ever called Safarty to make a statement.

Krom testified he had no further part in the investigation and didn't know who was in charge. Haver asked Krom if he heard Safarty talk about an expected bonus which he did not get. He said yes, and that he was quite upset about it.

Says Murphy Not Responsible

Haver, who contended that Murphy was detailed to supervising city traffic, and was not responsible for handling the burglary investigation, charged that Safarty could have been attempting a retaliation move for not getting the expected bonus of $2,000 or more.

The attorney pointed out that between the time of the burglary and the signing of the affidavit, Safarty had reported the Primrose firm for a tax violation, to the Labor Department for allowing sewing to be taken to persons' homes and instigated a union picket line on which he served.

Safarty admitted the actions, saying, "You have to fight fire with fire."

Can't Recall Statement

Former Detective Brophy couldn't recall having taken a statement from Safarty about the burglary, although Safarty said he had given it to him. He said he had talked with Safarty, but it was after he had already started to investigate the burglary.

Brophy said he was off duty at the time of the incident, but got a tip from a friend that an old truck, loaded with dresses had been seen along Albany Avenue.

He explained how he and his police partner, Frank Sammons had hunted for the truck for some time. The tip was given after a man had read about the Primrose burglary.

Brophy was of the opinion that the place really was burglarized.

Chief His Only Boss

The detective, who put in almost 33 years on the force, 13 in the post from which he retired, said he was responsible to report to the chief of police, not to any other of the lieutenants of the department. He didn't know whether any of the uniformed policemen had worked on the investigation or whether they had taken any statement from Safarty.

Haver stressed that Murphy, who was in charge of city traffic, could not be charged with responsibility for the burglary investigation. The trial is scheduled to resume at 7 tonight.

Count on obtaining one-quarter cup liquid from a three-ounce can of chopped broiled mushrooms. The liquid may be used in a soup or a sauce.

West Hurley Man Is Found Dead on Property of Son

Lewis Kellerhouse, 81, of West Hurley, a retired carpenter, was found dead early last night on the property of his son, Raymond Kellerhouse, also of that village.

Coroner Francis J. McCordie issued a verdict of suicide. He said Mr. Kellerhouse, who had been despondent since the death of his wife two years ago, and in ill health, had shot himself in the head with a 12-gauge shotgun.

A search party was organized last night when Mr. Kellerhouse failed to appear. A brother, Frank Kellerhouse, found the body about 8 p. m. in a wooded section 1,000 feet from the home of Raymond Kellerhouse, a son of the deceased.

McCordie said he had apparently placed a double-barrel, 12-gauge hammer-type shotgun in the fork of a tree, placed the barrel in or near his mouth and tripped the hammer with his foot.

Had Lived Alone

He issued a verdict of death by suicide due to massive cranial hemorrhage.

The death was investigated by McCordie, Undersheriff Clayton W. Vredenburg and Deputy Sheriff Thomas Mayone.

Mr. Kellerhouse had lived alone since his wife died. He was last seen at 10 a. m. Tuesday by a son, Francis Kellerhouse, at which time his father told him he was going into the woods to hunt squirrels.

The body was removed to Lasher Funeral Home. Arrangements were still pending early this afternoon.

Mr. Kellerhouse was a carpenter by trade and was well-known in the West Hurley area. He was a member of the Glenford Methodist Church.

Surviving are five sons, Lewis E., Raymond, Earl L., Francis and Frederick Kellerhouse, all of West Hurley; four daughters, Mrs. Frank DeGraff and Mrs. Ralph Nelson, both of West Hurley; Mrs. Theron DuBois of Glenford, and Mrs. Kenneth Dimsey of Pine Bush; one brother, Frank Kellerhouse, of West Hurley. Twenty-three grandchildren, five great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews also survive.

Funeral Friday

Funeral services will be held from the Lasher Funeral Home, Woodstock, Friday at 2 p. m. with the Rev. Richard R. Guice, of Ashokan, pastor of the Glenford-West Hurley Methodist Churches, officiating. Burial will be in Mt. Evergreen Cemetery, Woodstock.

Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday from 3 to 5 and 7 to 9 p. m.

Leaves From Boyle's Notebook

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Snapshot memories from a South American visit:

In Argentina nobody seems to care so much what a tourist thinks of the country's politics. The big question is, "How do you like our beef?"

Juicy but Tough

Most Americans, accustomed to meat aged longer, find the steaks juicy but a bit on the tough side. But Buenos Aires is paradise to a real meat eater with good molars. The steers are more outgiving than those in the United States. The steak portions come in big chunks.

And the price is about a third of what it would be back home. For $2 you can get a complete dinner consisting of a huge steak, potato, salad, wine, dessert and coffee.

The South American population is growing at a tremendous rate, and the continent also is spurring industrially.

In both Brazil and Argentina one is impressed by the inescapable evidence of boom, inflation, and great nationalistic pride.

Bust or Greatest

A foreigner, living in Rio de Janeiro, observed: "Brazil is going to end up one of the biggest political busts in history—or one of the greatest countries in the world. The possibilities here are infinite, but the people here want Brazil for the Brazilians. They want to end up owning their own country."

Another observer, in Argentina, of very poor. The middle class doesn't seem to be very strong. Look at all the slums."

Slums Too Evident

The slums are only too evident. The slums in the United States are now largely big blocks of tenements. In countries such as Brazil, the slums are still individual huts.

But in Sao Paulo, one of the world's fastest growing cities and often described as the Chicago of South America, a guide claimed proudly: "We are building a new home here every 12 minutes."

The office building skyline in the heart of the city seems to be growing as rapidly as resurgent Manhattan.

A strolling American in Brazil or Argentina runs into little obvious "Yankee-go-home" kind of antagonism. The people are courteous and polite to the stranger and helpful in small emergencies.

"The kind of foreigners they tend to dislike are those who come here, live entirely in their own groups, and after 20 years in the country still haven't taken the trouble to learn the language," one U.S. citizen stationed in South America said.

Cleveland, Ohio was named for one of its founders, Gen. Moses Cleveland. Somewhere the "a" was dropped from the name.

"Why Bohack chose Expanded Blue Cross and Blue Shield"

"We wanted to provide the finest protection for our employees and their families," says Edward R. Schuster, Vice-President of H. C. Bohack Co., Inc.

DOES YOUR FAMILY HAVE THIS SECURITY?

• Blue Cross "Service Benefits" means that the cost of semi-private room for non-maternity care in a Member Hospital is covered, in full, for your contract period. Blue Cross service benefits also cover most of the hospital services you need regardless of cost.

• Blue Shield "Service Benefits"—which Bohack employees enjoy under the Expanded Blue Shield plan—means that 18,000 Participating Physicians in the New York area accept Blue Shield allowances for surgery, general anesthesia, in-hospital medical care and radiation therapy for malignant conditions as payment in full for subscribers enrolled under the family contract whose yearly family income is $6,000 or less. Other subscribers receive liberal cash allowances for these services. All members of the Expanded program also receive allowances for specialist consultation in the hospital and for electro-shock therapy.

• You choose your own doctor! Your Blue Shield benefits are paid for care rendered by any licensed physician anywhere in the world.

• You can keep Blue Cross and Blue Shield protection when you change jobs, are out of work or retire.

• You get more for your money. Blue Shield and Blue Cross are non-profit, community-sponsored organizations. That means that all money beyond low operating expenses and required reserves is returned to subscribers in benefits.

"We have had basic Blue Cross for 20 years and Blue Shield for over ten," says Mr. Schuster. "Recently, when we wanted to step up our coverage we looked the health protection field over carefully and chose the Expanded plans. "Samples of some big hospital bills which Expanded Blue Cross has covered recently for Bohack employees tell you more about this protection than any words."

"A had a bill for $1,025.00. He paid only $68.00. Blue Cross covered $957.00."

"B had a $578.00 bill. He paid nothing. Blue Cross covered it in full."

"C had a $1,145.00 bill. She paid only $100.00. Blue Cross covered $1,045.00."

"And there are literally dozens more. In addition, 2,262 of our employees had help from Blue Shield in paying doctor bills last year. These Blue Shield payments ranged from small amounts for minor surgery done in the doctor's office, all the way up to $405.00 for doctor care rendered in the hospital."

"Protection like this keeps Bohack 100% behind Blue Cross and Blue Shield."

Each year, one family in every three has a hospital bill. And in practically every case, when there's a hospital bill, there are doctor bills—sometimes large ones. When your turn comes, will you have this realistic protection?

Don't wait until it is too late. Write for the free booklet that tells you all about Blue Cross and Blue Shield—their benefits and limitations—and how you can apply for membership. Today write: Blue Cross, Dept. 16, 80 Lexington Avenue, New York 16, N.Y.

P. W. Williamson, State Senator, Is Dead at Age 82

SCARSDALE, N. Y. (AP)—The death of Republican state Sen. Pliny W. Williamson, 82, left his party today in what one Westchester County leader described as a "state of turmoil."

Williamson died at his home here Tuesday during a campaign for re-election to a 13th term from the 31st District. Victory would have made him dean of the Senate, in which he had served nearly 24 years.

May Complicate Ruling

County attorney Harry G. Herman expected to give an opinion today on the question of replacing Williamson as Republican candidate in the Nov. 4 election.

The time of Williamson's death may complicate Republican efforts to choose another candidate. State election laws provide that county committee members from the senatorial district involved may name a new candidate in case of death—only if it occurs at least two weeks before election. Williamson died at 2:30 p. m., actually several hours less than the required two weeks.

Republicans may, however, get some help from another factor. Ballots have not yet been printed. The printing was delayed because of court action on the efforts of small parties to get a ballot spot.

Republican County Chairman Edwin G. Michaelian said party leaders probably will meet Monday to choose a successor. One party official remarked that such action might lead to court action by the Democrats.

The Democratic candidate in the 31st District, attorney Sydney Spector, also of Scarsdale, said he was "deeply shocked" by Williamson's death and that he was cancelling a dawn-to-dusk campaign tour scheduled Thursday.

Williamson had held his Senate seat since Jan. 1, 1935. Sen. Thomas C. Desmond, Newburgh Republican who is retiring this year after nearly 30 years as a senator, was the only member of the Senate with a longer term of service than Williamson's.

Patriarch of Senate

Williamson, a native of Russellville, Ohio, was a longtime resident of Scarsdale, with a law office in New York City.

He was chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee and had served on the Banks, Finance, General Laws and Rules committees.

Williamson, with a mane of iron gray hair and wearing pince-nez glasses, was the patriarch of the Senate. During his rare appearances in debate, he asked for and received comparative quiet in the Senate chamber.

Williamson had been a widower since 1941. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Robert S. Hackett of Scarsdale, and a son, Andrew, who lives in Maine.

Matter of FACT

The first great library of the world, at Alexandria, was founded by Ptolemy I, who ruled Egypt from 323 to 285 B.C. The library is thought to have had 700,000 volumes written on rolls of papyrus. Manuscripts were collected from all parts of the world and scholars came from all parts to study at Alexandria. In 47 B.C., when Julius Caesar took Alexandria, part of the library was burned, but it was later restored.

Walter Wolff of San Antonio writes, "Here is one for your department of utter confusion: 'My opening spade bid was due to the fact that I was playing in an individual tournament and wanted to bid the major suit first. My partner's four no-trump response was a typical individual bid and the fact that I showed just one ace did not encourage him in the slightest.'"

"As he explained later, he was a great believer in the law of symmetry and since he was void of one suit, he was sure that I was void of another. Of course, I can't be sure that he simply miscounted our aces by one, but that is neither here nor there."

"East doubled. He had two aces and sort of felt that we had our signals crossed. Fortunately for us, his partner also held an ace, and it happened to be the ace of clubs. He smiled happily and laid it down. I ruffed in dummy, drew trumps, discarded his one diamond on my king of clubs and conceded a heart trick."

"P.S. I vote the individual. Do I deserve congratulations?"

Says Leaf Smoke Is Irritant to Bronchial Area

The importance of persons refraining from burning leaves was stressed today by Dr. Herman Hilleboe, State Health Commissioner and chairman of the State Air Pollution Control Board.

Dr. Hilleboe said that the smoke created is a respiratory irritant which increases the discomfort of bronchitis and asthma sufferers. He said that burning leaves create many hazards, particularly on windy days. Wind-borne sparks from these fires are a hazard to the entire community," he said.

The State Health Commissioner added that soot from these fires can damage buildings, and soil furniture, clothing and linens. In most New York State communities, these open fires violate health, fire, police or air pollution control regulations.

Dr. Hilleboe said that the home furnace should not be used for burning leaves as this loads the furnace with soot and flyash and interferes with its efficient operation. He urged proper disposal of leaves by normal scavenger service. "This will serve as an aid to neighborhood beauty and cleanliness."

Road Project Bids To Be Opened in Albany on Nov. 20

Sealed bids on 22 proposed state highway improvement projects including one in Ulster and Sullivan Counties will be opened in Albany Nov. 20, according to announcement made by John W. Johnson, state superintendent of public works.

The 22 jobs involve 88.09 miles of work in 20 counties of the State, and have been estimated to cost a total of $21,284,000.

Major projects include an $8,420,000 construction job on the Throgs Neck Expressway and Cross Bronx Expressway Extension, Bronx County, a $2,702,000 Lake Ontario State Parkway project near Rochester, Monroe County, a $2,087,000 job on Hyde Park Boulevard Arterial, Niagara Falls, a $1,699,000 project on the final link of the Glen Cove Arterial, Nassau County, and a $1,243,000 reconstruction job on Transit Road and Sheridan Drive near Buffalo, Erie County.

14 Hurt in Rail Crash
METHUEN, Mass. (AP) — A track switch opened by vandals or saboteurs sent a Boston & Maine Railroad train hurtling into two standing freight cars late Tuesday night.

Nineteen of the 47 persons aboard the passenger train were injured, none seriously.

A spokesman for the railroad and Methuen Police Chief Cyril Feugill both said the two-car Budd liner passenger train had swerved onto a side track when it came to a switch opened in an act of vandalism or sabotage.

The train hit the two empty freight cars, then came to rest at a tilt against a grain shed. The train was bound for Boston from Rockingham Horse Race Track at Salem, N.H., after a night program of harness horse racing.

Particular Police?
TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Ram Chandru Basu, 22-year-old mechanical engineering student from Calcutta, India, says there's nothing to compare with the police of the United States. Basu is on a round-the-world motorcycle trip. By the time he reached Tucson, Basu said he had been stopped 210 times by U. S. cops, searched several times, and even taken to jail once for questioning. He said that tops anything faced in 38 countries.

McDermott Dies, Takes Secrets of Deaths to Grave

NEW YORK (AP) — Policeman James McDermott will carry to his grave the final, definite answer to the question: Why did he shoot to death four helpless patrons in a Broadway bar?

The 34-year-old patrolman died Tuesday in Roosevelt Hospital, shortly after Mrs. Virginia McDermott, his wife and mother of their four children, had left the bedside in hysterics.

A priest administered the last rites of the Catholic Church. McDermott had lain near death since early Sunday morning, when fellow policemen gunned him down as he fled from the Pic-a-Rib Restaurant, the scene of his murderous outburst.

In critical condition with five bullet wounds, he was unable to speak coherently at any time after his capture.

Capt. Patrick McCormack, heading the investigation, said, "So far as McDermott is concerned, this is the end of the case."

"Sentence has been pronounced," said another police official.

McCormack added, however, that police will continue to check that police will continue to check any possible connection between McDermott and the men he killed while off duty.

Avenue, Saugerties, on a charge of no registration, and Robert Bence, 25, of Box 246, Route 3, Kingston, paid $15 on a speeding charge and $5 for not having a driver's license. A charge of no registration was withdrawn.

Edward Trinkle, 30, of Cementon, paid $20 on a speeding charge, and Wayne Gilbert, 20, of 8 Wrentham Street, paid $15 on a similar charge.

Lorraine Cleary, 24, of 141 Washington Avenue, paid a total of $50—$25 on each count—on two charges of being an unlicensed operator. She also received a 30-day suspended sentence.

VIENNA (AP) — Communist Czechoslovakia has sent 12 contractors and associates to prison for illegally making the equivalent of $1,400,000 on public construction jobs.

Prague radio said today a court in the capital sentenced the group to terms ranging from 10 months to 15 years. They were accused of forging bills, pocketing illegal commissions and evading taxes.

Planning, Zoning Handbook Revised Copies Available

ALBANY—A revised edition of "Local Planning and Zoning," the basic handbook for municipal planning officials, was announced today by State Commerce Commissioner Edward T. Dickinson.

The 96-page booklet outlines the organization of planning and zoning agencies and describes their powers, duties and areas of responsibility.

Commissioner Dickinson called attention to important changes in the book, particularly a section incorporating amendments to state planning and zoning laws enacted by the 1958 Legislature.

He emphasized that revision of the book was occasioned by the growing importance of planning and zoning and increased participation by the state, counties, municipalities and metropolitan and regional areas in urban planning programs.

Dickinson noted that the State Commerce Department is charged with administration of state and federal funds for planning assistance. These funds, he said, enable communities lacking financial resources "to develop workable programs for urban renewal or to engage in other needed planning work."

Copies of "Local Planning and Zoning" may be obtained directly from the State Commerce Department, 112 State Street, Albany 7, or from any of the department's regional offices.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — The kingpin of all the measures of good times or bad in the United States is the gross national product. It is widely accepted by businessmen and economists as giving the best picture of the economy at the moment.

Few Know About It

But some economists have challenged its accuracy and doubt if it gives a complete picture of where we stand. And probably many Americans have only a vague notion of what it is or how it is compiled.

The short definition for GNP usually used is: The dollar value of all goods and services produced in the nation.

President Eisenhower's Council of Economic Advisers has just predicted that GNP will hit a record annual rate of 450 billion dollars by the end of this year — a comforting thought for all, except for those whose own businesses aren't booming and for the more than four million who are out of work.

The GNP is made up of the best statistics and estimates available to the Commerce Department. The first announcements often have to be revised as later figures come in. And a rise in GNP could reflect a rise in prices quite as much as any gain in business activity.

Components of GNP

What are the components of GNP?

First and biggest are personal consumption expenditures, which at present are reported to be running at an annual rate of 292 billion dollars. This is an estimate of what people are spending for durable goods like autos and household appliances, what they are spending for nondurable goods like clothing and food, and what they are spending for services like electricity and rent and medical care.

The next item is gross private domestic investment. This includes spending on construction of nonfarm homes or apartment houses and the cost of all other kinds of building. What business is investing in durable equipment also goes into this figure or estimate.

Takes Inventory Data

Then the department gathers data on business inventories. If they are rising as they were a year ago the change from the previous three months period is added onto GNP. If they are falling as they have been for some time the change from the last period is subtracted from GNP. The change in the last three months was a minus four billion dollars at an annual rate.

Then the department adds in what it has been able to find out about net foreign investment — what American businessmen or individuals have spent on their holdings abroad.

Finally it looks at government purchases. Here the figures are more easily come by. And over the past year they have been rising.

The latest figures show federal spending on goods and services running at 53 billion dollars a year, and state and local spending running at 40 billion. With the federal budget approaching the 80 billion dollar a year level, it is obvious that not all outgo adds to gross national product.

The value of GNP is that it gives estimates of three things: The value produced, the incomes earned, and the spending done.

Critics say it leaves out of account some other kinds of economic activity. And they list the exchange of used cars, houses, land, or of stocks, bonds, mortgages and other credit instruments.

They also stress the distortions caused by changing prices when GNP is used as gospel for where the economy is and where it's headed.

What It Is Like to Be an American in Communist China

ANTI-U. S. ANTAGONISM clouds faces of these chemical factory workers outside Nanking as they discover the picture-taking foreigner is an American. Poster blasts U. S. A., too.

"READY TO REPEL U. S. MARINES," this is a member of newly-organized militia unit in a commune outside Shanghai. Like others, he believes U. S. is ready to land in Red China.

Everybody Tees Off On First American

By JOHN STROHM

Copyright (c) 1958, NEA Service, Inc. All rights reserved, including reproduction in whole or part.

NEW YORK — (NEA) — What of the Red Chinese attitude toward John Strohm, the only American correspondent with both U. S. and Chinese permission to travel in China?

Amazement, first. For here was the mortal enemy they were ranting about, calmly taking pictures of their steel plants, their farms and their militia.

Curiosity, too. I was a crowd-stopper wherever I went. I must say that my ego dropped when I found out that one group of school children who stood up and clapped their hands when I entered the classroom thought I was a Russian!

In a few spots the searing blast of hatred continually directed toward our country licked at me personally. A cartoon of protest was drawn of me and placed in my hired automobile.

Once while I was being shown through a farm implement repair shop by the vice-director of one of the new communes, a belligerent worker pushed toward me and shouted, "Get out! Get out!"

On another occasion I was surrounded and jostled by students who were serving the state by running a small blast furnace.

Scarcely anyone, once my identity as an American was established, missed an opportunity to lecture me severely about American imperialism and the validity of Red China's aims. An engineer claimed he once had seen U. S. soldiers rape girls in Peiping. In Shanghai, I was conducted through a street memorable as the scene where a drunken GI allegedly killed a pedicab driver.

"This is not a happy time for you to be here," was the understatement of a factory manager in Nanking.

My interpreter, who had translated a hundred lectures to me and must have been as tired as I of the propaganda monotony, consoled me in these words:

"You're the only American most of them have ever met. It's their chance to tell you what they think."

In Hostile Land

What is it like to be an American in a hostile land at a time like the Quemoy crisis? One moves in a constant bath in virulent propaganda, from the official radio to the irate ladies in the old folks home.

To those who seem to possess some power to reason, you keep up a stiff counter-battery of patient argument. But when day is over the mind is exhausted and the spirit flags, even though you know one man cannot expect to offset massive Communist "re-education" and thought control.

The healing balm of honest resentment is a luxury one can enjoy only to a limited extent. Mainly one feels sorrow for the poor Chinese, whose streets, homes, shops and bodies have been cleaned up miraculously while, at the same time, their minds have been blackened by hatred and distortion.

Is there anywhere a few drops of good will for America? Many Chinese assured me that they were quite fond of the American people and wanted to be friends but that John Foster Dulles was preventing Americans from getting the truth about China.

I would be less than truthful if I failed to say that the vast majority of the Chinese I met—even against the hateful obligation of the propaganda—were most helpful to me personally. They were courteous and far less evasive than the Russians on my visits to the U.S.S.R.

The International Tourist Bureau, a government agency that handles all foreign visitors, made every arrangement I requested, took me everywhere I asked to go. While traveling in the rural areas, I would spot farmers working in the fields and tell the driver, "Stop!" The interpreter and I would have a visit with the farmers then move on, often stopping unannounced at an agricultural college or hospital.

No Winners in Debates

Many of the impromptu conversations which resulted became spirited give and take. I pulled no punches in refuting charges against the U.S. but the debates produced no winners.

As in my visit to the Soviet Union this summer I raised the point: "But war is so terrible today that there can be no victors so there will be no war."

I found that this did not go over as well in Red China as it did in Russia because the Chinese seem to have a fatalistic acceptance that if war results from their effort to take what they believe rightfully belongs to China, then war it must be and the U.S. will be at fault.

Party Chairman Mao has said that China is the only nation that can afford a war: "We can lose 300 million Chinese and still have 300 million left."

A diplomat has reported a grim conversation with Mao in which the party leader said: "World War I set up socialism in Russia. World War II set up socialism in the peoples' democracies of Europe and China. World War III might see the death of capitalism and the triumph of socialism around the world."

Fantastic Surge

How does one evaluate such statements as these? I only know this for sure; all this war spirit is getting a fantastic surge of production out of the Chinese workers, known officially as "the great leap forward in agriculture and industry."

In one rural commune they had set up 5,000 tiny blast furnaces to make pig iron, promised another 5,000 by the end of October as their answer to American "aggression."

A letter by a worker in a truck factory said, "We'll crush American aggressors beneath the wheels of our trucks."

Fukien province farmers, close to the guns trained at Quemoy, adopted the slogan, "More grain to support the front; heavy blows to beat the U. S. wolves."

Another reaction reported in the press: "Five million tons of manure were transported in one evening's effort."

When I visited the big open-cut coal mine in Fushun the secretary told me the workers were so upset they had voted to create "20 sputniks"—20 new types of machinery to make for more efficient production.

During the past month most factories and communes have organized militia units. I saw them drilling with rifles or wooden sticks. They were, these amateurs asserted, ready to march out and repel the U. S. Marines who were going to land any day now on the Chinese mainland "just as they did in Lebanon."

Quote Chiang

"But what makes you think America has any idea of attacking China?" I would ask. And they would come back with Chiang's statements that he would lead his army back to the mainland and quote American admirals as boasting that the U. S. was backing up the Formosa government with "the greatest striking power in history."

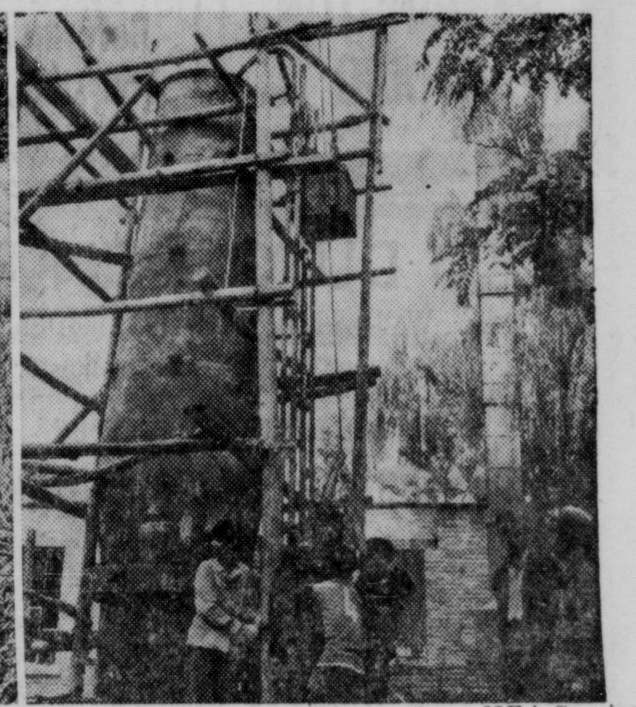

But sometimes they are disdainful of American strength. "When America talks so much of its power," a Hankow steel official told me gravely, "it is really a sign of American weakness."

When I tried to talk back to this sort of thing by saying "America never started a war,"

Of Many Things

by DOROTHY A. NAREL

Freeman Society Editor

Women Hold Majority

Did you know that only 16 states within the United States have a male majority? It's a rather thought provoking subject.

According to the Statistical Abstract of the United States (which is figured from the total male and female population 21 years and over) women are definitely in the majority.

States which boast a male majority (attention, single girls!) include Arizona, Idaho, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Wyoming.

This type of information can spell success or defeat for any political candidate for the woman's vote is the pot of gold at the end of the political rainbow. Believe it or not, but the female majority of potential voters is almost two million and this majority will increase rather than decrease for the simple reason women have formed the annoying habit of living longer than men.

If women continue to gain political strength, (which they undoubtedly will) it may come to pass, within 40-50 years, that a husband will move into the White House with the President.

"The hand that rocks the cradle, rules the world," was never more true than it is today. The role women play in government, public affairs and industry, will in large measure, determine what the future holds for America.

What hampers the female's progress on the road to success are left-over prejudices, outmoded customs and traditions.

Women Amateurs?

The idea still prevails that women are only interested in such things as health, education, morality and delinquency. Granted that these are vital areas in our world of today, we should not, however, lose sight of the fact that women are also keenly interested in taxes, foreign affairs, agriculture and labor problems.

Women realize that they are not yet ready for the White House—but it won't take them long.

For 133 years, following the signing of the Constitution, the affairs of this nation were handled by men—without any interference, except from each other. The scepter of the political rulers was handed down from father to son. But watch out, men—there's a lady on the end of that line! She's waiting to take over!

If you have any doubts about this, just look at the record women have made during the last 38 years for it was in 1920 that the 19th amendment to the Constitution became the law of the land and gave women the right to vote. They have done a lot in a very short time!

In the meantime, (while the females of this nation eye the White House) women can find comfort in the thought that victory is theirs, even now. If they so choose, they can defeat or elect, support or oppose and turn defeat to victory for any cause they espouse or candidate they endorse. All because they hold the balance of power.

Women are already responsible for more than 80 per cent of the buying and selling in this country—they have taken over many a domain once ruled by males — and they are now invading the voting booth in increasing numbers. Their side is the winning side.

From your childhood, do you remember any of the far-fetched fantasy films and stories of far-off lands ruled by women? They were pretty silly stories, wouldn't you say?

Or were they? — perhaps as silly as landing on the moon? Well, it seems the moon trip is just around the corner—now how about the other?

IF HOME ADDRESSES ARE NOT KNOWN

Dear Mrs. Post: Our company is giving a large dinner for one of the executives who is retiring in several months. Invitations are to be sent to business friends with whom he has been associated these many years. We would like also to include their wives. Herein lies our problem: We do not know the home addresses of many of those being invited, and it would be a tremendous task to look them all up. We were wondering if it would be proper to address these invitations to Mr. and Mrs. and send them to the business address?

Answer: It would be quite all right, under the circumstances, to send the invitations to the business address. However, I would suggest addressing the outside envelope to Mr. John Jones followed by his business address and then write Mr. and Mrs. Jones on the inside envelope indicating that his wife is invited too.

How To Refer to Husband

Dear Mrs. Post: The proper use of "my husband" bothers me. I'm not sure when to call him "John" and when to say "my husband." Will you please advise me?

Answer: The name of safety is "my husband," because with the exception of two circumstances it can't be wrong. To personal friends you naturally talk of him as "John." Also rather better when speaking to general businessmen or tradesmen, or to those who work for you, speak of him as "Mr. Brown."

Residents' Son Is Lauded for Part In Cp Telethon

A columnist in the Sunday Herald, Bridgeport, Conn., pays high tribute to Leonard Garr, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Lipgar of Kingston, in a column Oct. 19.

Mr. Garr is a well known entertainer, now playing the Hotel Barnum in Bridgeport.

He was one of the stars assisting last week with a telethon in Bridgeport in connection with a cerebral palsy drive.

Harry Neigher writes in his column:

"Former motion picture cameraman turned singer- pianist, Leonard Garr, who started out to be a chemical engineer at Columbia University, is back at the Pink Elephant at Bud Behn's Barnum hostelry. Garr's a handsome hunk of man and one of the biggest attractions the city's No. 1 nightspot has ever booked. (It was SRO there Wednesday, opening night.)

While a frosh at Columbia, young Garr had a role on Broadway in 'Rosalinda,' with Dorothy Sarnoff, Shelley Winters and Gene Barry in the cast. He also worked in plays and musical comedies with Joan Caulfield and Alfred Drake."

Mr. Garr now resides in San Francisco and Hollywood.

High Falls Group Plans Gala Event For Halloween

Final plans for the High Falls Halloween parade and party on October 31 were announced today by Frank Lynch, committee chairman.

This is a community project sponsored by the townspeople and organizations of High Falls under the committee affiliated with the High Falls Civic Association.

The annual "Ragamuffin" Parade will begin promptly at 7 p. m. on October 31. The parade will be headed by the High Falls fire truck and the line of march will be from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. William Brooks on Mohonk Road, to the High Falls fire hall.

The age groups will be as follows: Group 1: 4 years and younger; Group 2: 5 years thru 10 years; Group 3: 11 years thru 16 years; Group 4: 17 years and up excluding adults; Group 5: Adults.

Upon completion of the judging of the costumes there will be various contests for these same groups.

Refreshments will be served. The residents of the Village of High Falls and High Falls Park are cordially invited to join in the festivities.

Hadassah Members Launch Aliyah Drive This Week; Membership to Raise $2,650

Local Hadassah members inaugurate their annual Youth Aliyah drive this week. Proceeds will benefit the immigration movement, which has resettled and rehabilitated more than 85,000 Jewish young people in Israel.

Mrs. George B. Starkman, chairman of the project for the women's Zionist organization, has announced that the Kingston chapter's quota for this year, the 25th year of Youth Aliyah accomplishment, is $2,650. Contributors to the campaign will be guests of the local group at a supper and show scheduled for Monday, Dec. 1, at Congregation Agudas Achim.

Contributions may be mailed to Mrs. Harry Feldman, 104 Wall Street. Letters about the drive and brochures describing the work carried on by Youth Aliyah have been sent out to all Hadassah members and former donors to the campaign. Assisting Mrs. Starkman in sending out the material were the Mmes. Irving Adner, Morris Berman, William Buchbinder, Stanley Caple, Murray J. Fletcher, Leon Gray, Oscar London, Sidney Treinkman, Charles Warshaw, David Zucker and her guest, Mrs. Lillian Bland of San Bernardino, Calif.

Hadassah serves as official representative in the U. S. for Youth Aliyah, founded in 1934 by Miss Henrietta Szold, who also initiated Hadassah's organization. There are currently 15,000 youths, ages 13 to 16, in training of 248 Youth Aliyah villages, agricultural settlements and special schools and centers in Israel.

"Operation Immigrant Youth," carried on jointly with Hadassah's Vocational Education projects, provides on-the-spot training for youngsters in three immigrant settlements near Jerusalem. Emotionally disturbed children are treated at two villages devoted exclusively to the rehabilitation of such youngsters.

In recent years, Youth Aliyah's rescue work has been focused mainly on the ghettos of North Africa and the Middle East. 1957 crises in Eastern Europe resulted in a vast increase in migration from this area; also aided were entire Egyptian Jewish families forced into exile after Israel's Sinai Desert operation.

Now being built in Israel are the first six of 12 projected Anne Frank Havens, planned as gifts from Hadassah to Youth Aliyah. The centers will accommodate children from seven to twelve years of age, who are too young for absorption into regular Youth Aliyah program.

All contributions to Youth Aliyah are sent directly to Israel to finance housing, teachers' salaries, books, medical and psychiatric care, social work, food, clothing, equipment and rural vocational education.

AAUW Will Send Delegate Abroad To UNESCO Meeting

Dr. Anna L. R. Hawkes, national president of American Association of University Women, will serve as a delegate to the general conference of UNESCO in Paris, slated from Nov. 3 to Dec. 5.

According to an announcement from Mrs. Russell Hope Robbins, president of the Kingston AAUW branch, Dr. Hawkes sails Wednesday, Oct. 22, from New York aboard the Queen Elizabeth. She will also attend a meeting of the directors of the National Cultural Relations Services, to be held in Paris Oct. 28-31, as a member of the U. S. delegation.

Mrs. Robbins pointed out that the AAUW has actively supported the work and concepts of UNESCO. Its general director, Dr. Helen D. Bragdon, represented the organization on the U. S. Commission for UNESCO from 1950 to 1955. AAUW also supports international exchange of students, teachers and other professional groups and a broad reciprocal cultural relations program.

Former dean of students at Mills College, Dr. Hawkes will join other UNESCO conference delegates in study and adoption of the 1959-60 program; the budget to be proposed calls for added emphasis on educational assistance in UNESCO's program; broadening of aid to Latin America for primary education; and initiation of assistance to Africa. Funds will also be allotted to extend activities in the field of international cultural relations and communications among peoples.

Heading the U. S. delegation is Maxwell M. Rabb, former Secretary to the Cabinet; vice-chairman is John W. Hanes Jr., deputy assistant Secretary of State for International Organization Affairs.

21 New Members Join Hadassah

Reports on current Hadassah projects and presentation of a skit satirizing membership-drive techniques were highlights of last night's Hadassah meeting at Temple Emanuel.

With Mrs. Murray J. Fletcher presiding, members heard plans for major events scheduled for the year, including the Youth Aliyah Drive and Donor Dinner dance.

Mrs. David Kline, membership coordinator, reported that up to now more than 300 area women have been enrolled, including 21 new members. Mrs. Seymour Werbalowsky and Mrs. Walter Suskind were co-chairmen in charge of new members.

Mrs. Kline announced that those who worked on the campaign, new members and all those who enrolled members will be eligible for the "Knickerbocker Holiday," grand prize in the regional membership contest. The drawing is slated for Nov. 5.

Mrs. Arthur H. London, chairman of the "New and Nearly New" sale held Oct. 13-17, reported that more than $700 was raised during the sale. Proceeds from this sale and another to be held in the spring benefit vocational education projects carried on by Hadassah in Israel.

Assisting Mrs. London in working at the shop or picking up merchandise to be sold were the Mmes. Herbert Kletske, co-chairman, Joseph Avis, Morris Berman, William Buchbinder, Maurice Crystal, Robert E. Davis, Milton J. Dubin, Murray Fletcher, Herbert Gertner, Debbie Greene, Nathaniel B. Gross, Sidney Halpern, Morton Honig, Sherman Kent, Edward Kestenbaum, Louis Kline, Stanley London, Robert Nadler, Harold Newman, Herbert Siller, Walter Suskind, Sidney Treinkman, Rose Weinstein, Ida Werbalowsky and Robert S. Yallum. Mrs. Carl Pauker was in charge of the cake sale held in conjunction with the project.

Mrs. George Starkman, chairman of the Youth Aliyah drive, announced that the campaign will begin this week and culminate in a supper, to be held Dec. 1 at Congregation Agudas Achim.

The annual Donor Dinner dance will be held June 7 at Grossingers, according to Mrs. Jay Melton, chairman in charge of arrangements for the event.

Mrs. Larry Hunter was appointed recording secretary; named to the refreshment committee were Mrs. Morris Berman, chairman, Mrs. Maurice Crystal, Mrs. Alfred Rose, Mrs. Max Rose and Mrs. A. L. Schulman. Mrs. Fletcher announced that Mrs. Manuel B. Lipton is now in Miami Beach, Fla., attending the national Hadassah convention as delegate from the Kingston branch.

Mrs. Stanley London, program chairman for the evening, presented a skit, "Woman to Women," written by Mrs. Melvin Navy and Mrs. Jack Smolen, members of the local group. Following the format of the "Person to Person" television program, the satire depicted five Hadassah workers, finalists in a mock membership campaign. Interviewed by Mrs. Cecil Murkoff, the "finalists" revealed in secrets of their membership-campaign tactics.

The cast included Mrs. Larry Hunter, as a southern belle who signed up her quota of new members during the mint-julep hour; Mrs. Arthur H. London, portraying a hillbilly sharpshooter; Mrs. Jerome Strugatz as Dr. Efrida von Norsky, who worked out mathematically the best method for recruiting members; Mrs. Seymour Werbalowsky, as a mayor's wife who signed up every constituent in town; and Mrs. Gertrude Zeilegold, as a relentless worker who banked on the "foot-in-the-door" method. Mrs. Stanley London presented the "commercials" for the show.

The Mature Parent

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Child's Allowance Isn't 'Wages' Earned From Parent

As usual, Ken had left his bicycle sprawled across the driveway blocking the passage into the garage.

Muttering profanely, his father braked his car. Then he got out of it, hesitated, got back in, slammed the door and roared, "Ken!"

When his son appeared, he yelled, "If you don't want your wheel run over, get it out of my way. Next time you park in here I will run it over. How many times do you have to be told . . . ?"

He was shutting the garage doors when his son said, "Can I have my allowance now, Dad? It's Saturday—and I gotta lot of things to do this afternoon. . . ."

Without hesitation his still fuming parent reached into his pocket and counted out four dimes into his child's hand.

Honor to him.

For many of us it's uncomfortable to hand money to a child who has just annoyed us with carelessness or disobedience. We feel that we are appearing to reward his offensive behavior.

But this is a sophisticated, grown-up feeling that the child does not share. Because he understands this, Ken's father was able to give him his 40 cents without discomfort.

To us, money comes as reward for disciplined effort. We are paid salaries or wages for taking buses on time, for managing relationships with bosses and fellow employees, for producing sales, ideas, merchandise and service despite our occasional inclination to stop producing them and take off for a South Sea island where no disciplined effort is required of us.

But to children who have not begun to earn their livings, an allowance is just equipment that enables them to extend their spheres of action, just as their rubbers and sweaters enable them to leave the house. We are not their employers, and do not give them money in exchange for disciplined effort, but because they need it to get along as they need the rubbers and sweaters.

Dependent children and earning grown-ups feel differently about money. Once this difference is clear to us, we can pay irritating Ken his allowance without discomfort, and hand him his dimes as easily as we serve him his meat for supper.

Why should it now?" they would come back with a knowing smile: And what about Korea?"

For many Chinese are persuaded that the U. S. started the war in Korea, just as they are sure that the Chinese Volunteers won it.

"The American people are afraid that the Communists want to force their form of government on the rest of the world," I argued.

Again the smile. "Ridiculous. Lenin himself said communism cannot be exported."

Only rarely did I encounter flashes of the Chinese humor which once was so endearing. Once in protesting that I did not believe there would be a war or I would not be traveling in China, I pulled out a photograph of my wife and six children.

"Ohoh," smiled a factory manager, "so you are a sputnik father."

Sputnik is the Chinese label given to anyone who overfulfills the production plan.

Too Obliging Grandmother Gets Baby-Sitting 'Career'

"I've let myself become just a convenient baby sitter," writes a grandmother who lives in the town with a married son and a married daughter.

"It's gotten so that I can never count on an evening for myself," she says. "The telephone will ring and one or the other of my children will ask if I can run over and stay with the children while they go out with friends. They never bother to tell me ahead of time, which makes it exasperating."

How about having a frank talk with your children? Tell them you don't mind looking after the children occasionally, but you do like to be able to plan your own evenings. So you would like to know ahead of time when they are going to count on you for baby-sitting.

Also, suggest that they try to find a paid baby sitter at least part of the time, if they like to go out often.

While most grandmothers are willing to pinch hit as baby sitters, and some would be hurt if their children ever called on anyone but Grandmother, any woman who has reared her own family shouldn't be expected to be burdened by too much care of her grandchildren.

So speak your piece—gently but firmly. Chances are, your children just haven't realized that they have been imposing on you.

Once you let them know that you need a little freedom just as much as they do and that you have your own life to lead, they'll respect you for your determination to be something more than just good, old reliable Grandmother who never has anything important enough to do so that her plans have to be considered. It's easy for grown children to fall into the habit of imposing on their parents if the parents will stand still for it.

But that's exactly what a parent who resents being turned into a convenience shouldn't do.

Moehle's Letter to Soper, Earlier Memorandum Clarify Status of Woodstock Pupils

Clarification of the status of Woodstock School District No. 2 pupils and graduates as the result of annexation by Onteora is embodied in a letter sent by district principal, John H. Moehle, to Dr. Earl F. Soper, superintendent of Kingston schools, and in a memorandum filed with the Onteora Board of Education.

Moehle's memorandum is amended as of Aug. 18 and the letter to Superintendent Soper is dated Wednesday, Oct. 15, and reads as follows:

"This is to confirm matters of policy we discussed yesterday on the telephone.

"Students enrolled in Kingston High School from Woodstock No. 2 (Grades 9-10), who are taking Latin and other vocational subjects not offered in our curriculum will remain in Kingston and our district will pay the cost of transportation and non-resident tuition for these students. If a student drops Latin or other vocational courses, then the cost of his non-resident tuition and transportation shall be defrayed by his parents and will cease to be an obligation of our board of education.

"From time to time, we will have to agree on certain exceptions in some individual cases. For example: a student now enrolled in General Shop, which we offer, would be covered by this policy because in the Sophomore and Junior year he will enroll in trade courses we do not offer. Woodstock 2 would have paid the non-resident tuition and transportation for these 9th and 10th graders up to October 15, 1958. You are kindly requested to bill us for the costs in connection with these students for the period from the opening of school to October 15, 1958.

"Any student who remains in Kingston in the 9th or 10th grades after October 15 will be expected to pay his own non-resident tuition and transportation unless he comes under the special arrangements contained in my second paragraph. Again, there may be one or two exceptions to this policy, but Mr. Tobin and Mr. Runge can work out how these individual cases are settled.

"Students entering the 9th grade in September 1959 from Woodstock No. 2 will be expected to enroll here for all courses except vocational trade subjects.

"Hoping this clears up this situation, I remain . . . JOHN H. MOEHLE, District Principal."

Original Memorandum

The Moehle memorandum to the Onteora Board of Education, as amended August 18, 1958, stipulated in the Pupil Placement section that "all students in grades 7 and 8 will be retained in the Woodstock school. A few minor transfers may be made but such transfers should be left to the discretion of the administrative council."

The Pupil Placement recommendations, as amended read: "All students in grades 9 and 10 will be enrolled in Onteora as of September, 1958. All students in grades 11 and 12 who wish to enroll and who will be accepted by Kingston High School shall be permitted to do so, and the Central District will defray the cost of transportation and tuition.

"In a few cases where students are taking specialized courses in Kingston, and which are not offered in Onteora, will be permitted to enroll or continue in such courses and their transportation and tuition shall be defrayed by the central board. However, each individual case must be presented to the board of education for its approval."

Policy Meeting

The original memorandum issued by Principal Moehle followed a meeting with Superintendent Reginald R. Bennett and Principal Walter S. Van Wagenen of Woodstock School, who attended at the invitation of Principal Moehle.

The purpose of the conference was to discuss effective policies of operation in connection with the opening of Woodstock school under the direction of the Onteora board of education. It was also arranged to work out suggested recommendations to place before the Onteora board in connection with various mutual problems facing both districts.

It was agreed that the school calendar adopted by the Onteora board of education would be adhered to by the Woodstock school throughout the year.

It was agreed that the students of nine families from the Zena district who have been enrolled in the Woodstock school should be allowed to continue in attendance.

It was agreed that the census of the Woodstock district would be taken by a person selected by Mr. Van Wagenen and the cost of this census would be $150, a sum which had been budgeted and approved by the Woodstock voters. Van Wagenen has taken the census each year but was not interested in doing it this year. He strongly recommended that the present Onteora Census Enumerator not be requested to take the Woodstock census because of a lack of knowledge of local conditions, location of residences, etc.

With respect to transportation, the policy of the board of education shall be that no transportation will be provided to a student residing within the present Woodstock school district unless he resides over 1.5 miles from the school. The Onteora district said it would make available to the Woodstock district a station wagon.

On Payroll Problem

On the subject of payrolls the memorandum noted: There are three summer employees of the school district who are entitled to pay, namely Mr. Van Wagenen, the custodian and office secretary. Moehle offered to certify these persons for payroll purposes but it was felt it would be easier to have these persons paid from funds available in the Woodstock 2 account. In doing this, we assigned the Woodstock district has 30 days to close out its financial affairs from July 28 instead of June 30, 1958.

On the matter of records, the memorandum stated: Mr. Van Wagenen, as a result of the decision by his board of trustees will officially turn over the necessary records to District Superintendent Bennett.

Moehle's memorandum further pointed out: "Mr. Van Wagenen and I are in mutual agreement as to how we are to handle generally the following procedures and practices: Accounting, purchasing, and administration, maintenance, curriculum adjustments, census accounting, procurement of equipment, text books and so forth."

Hopes For Harmony

The memorandum concludes with these observations: "Our conference was very pleasant and the three of us felt that, if the board will adopt these recommendations, we will be able to move ahead with the problem of annexation as smoothly as possible under the present very difficult and trying circumstances. In the event a stay order is granted, all of these agreements will be held in abeyance until such time as the district does become officially part of us.

"Many, many details will have to be worked out from an administrative standpoint . . . but I respectfully ask the board to approve these recommendations, as stated, in the interest of establishing as much harmony and peace as possible at this particular time."

Principal Walter S. Van Wagenen has announced there will be no school this Friday, Oct. 24, due to a Teachers Conference in New York City.

Art Class Opens At The School

The Woodstock Elementary School will start an art class next Tuesday, Oct. 28, from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m.

The class will be held in the dual-purpose room in the school. Richard Jeffery, who has taught this Adult Education course for the past several years will again be the instructor.

Principal Walter S. Van Wagenen has announced there will be no school this Friday, Oct. 24, due to a Teachers Conference in New York City.

League Women Voters Unit Seen Likely in Woodstock

Sufficient interest has been manifested among the women of the Township of Woodstock that organization of a branch of the League of Women Voters for the township is a possibility, it has been learned.

Mrs. H. C. Lawson of Woodstock, who was hostess to the first of a series of coffee meetings sponsored by the LWV, said a decision on a separate chapter for Woodstock would be held in abeyance pending organization of the Kingston chapter.

The Woodstock women, numbering 35 at the moment, and with the list increasing daily, have been asked by the state organization to hold everything in abeyance until the coffee meetings have been held in Kingston. A decision is expected within two weeks.

Mrs. Manuel Bromberg was co-hostess at the meeting held at Mrs. Lawson's home. Mrs. Carolyn Culver, a second vice president, and Mrs. Peggy Nile, past president of the New Paltz league were the guest speakers.

Interest Is High

It was felt that interest is great enough in the Woodstock area to warrant formation of a provisional league there, in addition to the proposed Kingston league. A pre-organization meeting will be held within the next few weeks at the home of Mrs. Lawson with the state organization's chairman present to explain the duties and workings of a provisional league. Women who are interested in the formation of a league in the Woodstock area are requested to contact either Mrs. Lawson or Mrs. Bromberg.

The proposed Kingston league, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Robert Yallum, will hold coffee meetings within the next two weeks at the homes of Mrs. Elsworth Johnson, 10 Kiersted Avenue and Mrs. Ried Heassler, Hurley. In addition, a coffee meeting will be held in the Lake Katrine area at a later date. Women interested in attending one of these meetings are requested to contact Mrs. Yallum, Mrs. Johnson or Mrs. Heassler.

Post Office Takes Option On Site for New Building

The Post Office Department has taken an option on the Elwyn-Fitzsimmons property on Tinker Street as the proposed site for the new Woodstock post office, Postmaster Leon Carey announced today.

Plans are now being drawn for a modern fireproof building to meet Woodstock's expanding volume of mail.

Postmaster Carey said he was unable to predict when work would start.

The property formerly known as the Walter Glatz estate provides a 70 by 170 plot. Since much of the mail is transported by carrier truck, the new location has sufficient space to permit trucks to move in and out of the post office property without backing into traffic in the area.

Announcement of the acquisition of the property is another step toward establishing a Class A post office in the township.

Meanwhile, the Town Board's street naming and numbering committee has received new large scale maps and is proceeding with the business of setting up a number system for the residences and establishments in the village center and for completing unnamed roads and streets.

The committee consists of Councilman Tobie Geertsema and Justice of the Peace Charles Farley.

Onteora, New Paltz to Duel in Top Attraction Saturday

KHS Gridders Have Week Off

BY ED PALLADINO
Freeman Sports Staff

With Kingston players enjoying a well-earned weekend off, the area scholastic football focus will be on the UCAL race, which can be decided Saturday afternoon at Onteora when the defending champions meet first place New Paltz in the top attraction of the day.

Most of the bigger schools have off days on their schedule this weekend, so the DUSO league will have to take a back seat. Competition in that circuit resumes next Saturday.

Though there is only one UCAL contest slated, there are other top non-league games as well as a contest in the Dutchess County Scholastic league.

This week's schedule:
FRIDAY
Saugerties at Port Jervis
Arlington vs. Wappingers Falls (Poughkeepsie)

SATURDAY
New Paltz at Onteora (UCAL)
Liberty at Highland Suffern at Middletown
Beacon at Peekskill
Roosevelt at CFMA
Red Hook at Marlboro
Walkkill at Goshen

The donnybrook at Onteora promises to be the standout attraction. New Paltz needs only to defeat the defending champions to insure the loop crown. Onteora has to win to retain an outside chance of grabbing the title outright. A victory by the home club will almost insure a tie since both New Paltz and Onteora have comparatively easy foes remaining.

Easy Foes Left
The Huguenots will play a Halloween night contest at home against Rondout Valley and Onteora has a contest at Marlboro. Both figure to win easily so the game on Saturday becomes that much more important.

New Paltz has won its two league starts by a total of eight points. Walkkill was edged, 19-18, in the last minute of play. Marlboro was blanked 7-0.

Onteora bowed to Walkkill, 13-12, and then was impressive last week in dumping Rondout Valley, 21-0. It was the first win of the season for Coach Ed Witko's club after three tough losses. New Paltz has an overall mark of 3-2, with the losses coming against Pine Bush and Millbrook, two unbeaten powerhouses. Last week Larry Johnson's gridders dumped Greer school of Verbank, 21-6.

Boulevard Gulf and Sickler's "35" Club won close games in the "B" division of the YMCA Basketball league last night.

Sickler's rallied in the fourth period, overcoming a three point deficit, to beat Amato's Trucking, 42-36. The truckers had a 30-27 margin after three periods, but could not keep pace.

Ulster Marines Finish in Third

A four-man team of the Ulster County detachment of the Marine Corps League won third place honors in a two-day shoot at Colonie, near Albany, last weekend.

The Ulster shooters included Commandant Alfred Trowbridge, Edward Whalen, Gilbert Gray and Valmore Carpenter. Long Island won the shoot and Albany was second.

Trowbridge gained additional honors as he was the fifth highest of more than 100 shooters.

First Landing Is Big Choice

Camden, N. J. (AP) — First Landing was established the early 8-5 choice Tuesday for the rich Garden States Stakes Saturday at Garden State Park, and the last minute jockey assignments were announced.

Four supplementary nominees announced Monday at $10,000 each, the field for the world's richest horse race stood at 12.

Aussies May Ban Kramer's Show

MELBOURNE (AP) — A ranking Australian tennis official Tuesday night warned professional promoter Jack Kramer that he might be prevented from staging his pro matches anywhere in Australia.

The official, Victorian Lawn Tennis Assn. President R. M. Vroland, was commenting on reports that Kramer was planning matches in Melbourne and Sydney outside official tennis venues.

Vroland said Kramer had objected to granting free admission to members of the Victorian, New South Wales and Western Australian Lawn Tennis Associations in return for the right to rent their courts for his matches.

But apparently Kramer found the terms offered by South Australia and Queensland acceptable, because they wanted only a concession rate for admission of their members.

Vroland added: "There is much more to this Kramer business than that. Unless Kramer agrees to the terms of Victoria, New South Wales and Western Australia he will find himself out altogether in those states."

"Furthermore, as Queensland and South Australia need the approval of the Lawn Tennis Assn. of Australia he could very well find himself out everywhere."

Williams Stars As Car Wash Wins

Little Mel Williams went on a scoring spree last night at the YMCA court to lead his Minute Car Wash teammates to a 78-67 win over Back's Cedaraps in an "A" division contest.

Williams hooped 14 field goals and two foul shots for 30 points. The Car Wash pulled ahead in the final period after the contest was nip and tuck for three quarters.

OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream

By AL McCLANE
Fishing Editor

The winter steelhead campaign gets under way next month. Pacific coast regulars will be tossing weighted flies at those big sea run rainbows. In the extremely heavy water that occurs now, that extra weight is necessary to reach the depths where fish travel.

Weighted flies are larger than those used in summer fishing and consequently require a different technique in casting.

The one chief difference is the slowing down of the cast to allow the heavier, wind-resistant flies more time to reach the extreme end of the back cast.

The angler can feel the pull of the line and fly as it straightens out behind him and then a powerful but rather slow forward cast is necessary to shoot the heavy fly out to the desired spot. The faster casting used with unweighted flies will too often snap off the weighted kind on the start of the forward cast.

Change in Habits
In extremely high water, steelhead will frequently move out of their usual haunts in the runs and riffles to take up temporary abode in the deep pools.

They will hold in the deepest part of the pool where the main force of the current passes over them, affording a layer of relatively quiet water near bottom.

A heavily weighted fly cast well upstream and allowed to bounce along the bottom will frequently take fish. Casting the weighted fly to fish under these circumstances takes lots of patience.

The fly drifting along through the heavy current may be within two feet of the bottom and still not be close enough to be visible in murky winter water.

The fly should be weighted enough to go to the bottom quickly and bump along like bait.

Army, Irish, Auburn Picked to Win

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — You say they have taken the kicking out of football, Hmmm? What about these letters? After all, 36 correct guesses in 52 attempts last week isn't too bad, is it?

Here are this weekend's picks: Army over Pittsburgh; Two of the East's most rugged, Dawkins if he plays—and Anderson give the Cadets an edge in speed.

Strictly on a hunch. Louisiana State over Florida: How can the Tigers be denied. They have a Cannon, Bill that is, while the gators must counter with 145-pound Jimmy Dunn.

Auburn over Maryland: The Plainsmen don't score heavily but their opponents usually don't score at all.

Oklahoma over Kansas State: The Sooners, now playing in the Big Eight, will have a winning streak of two come Saturday night.

Washington State over Southern California: Have you ever seen so many ups and downs in the Coast Conference this fall?

Notre Dame over Purdue: All the Irish walking wounded are back in good health. They will need to be to stop the team that spilled Michigan State a week ago.

Princeton over Cornell: Who would have thought two months ago that this one might decide the Ivy League title?

Skipping over the others in a hurry: FRIDAY
William & Mary over George Washington.

SATURDAY

EAST: Miami over Boston College, Brown over Rhode Island, Buffalo over Columbia, Connecticut over Delaware, Dartmouth over Harvard, Holy Cross over Boston University, Rutgers over Lehigh, Navy over Penn. Penn State over Syracuse, Yale over Colgate, Villanova over Richmond.

SOUTH: Mississippi over Arkansas, Clemson over South Carolina, Furman over the Citadel, Kentucky over Georgia, Mississippi State over Alabama, North Carolina over Wake Forest, Tennessee over Florida State, Vanderbilt over Virginia, Virginia Tech over West Virginia.

MIDWEST: Iowa over Northwestern, Cincinnati over Oklahoma State, Colorado over Nebraska, Arizona State over Detroit, Bradley over Drake, Michigan State over Illinois, Indiana over Miami (Ohio), Tulane over Kansas, College of Pacific over Marquette, Michigan over Minnesota, Missouri over Iowa State.

SOUTHWEST: Rice over Texas, Baylor over Texas A&M, Hardin Simmons over Wichita, North Texas State over Tulsa, Southern Methodist over Georgia Tech.

FAR WEST: Air Force over Utah, Oregon over California, Idaho over Arizona, Oregon State over Washington, UCLA over Stanford, Colorado State over Utah State, Wyoming over New Mexico.

Patterson Named Vice-President Of YMCA Board

The board of directors of the YMCA Tuesday evening unanimously elected Arthur Patterson vice-president to succeed C. S. Rowland Jr., who recently moved to South Carolina.

Patterson is resident manager of Franke, Hannon & Whitney, certified public accountants.

G. Herbert DeKay presided and Louis H. Schafer, general secretary, led the devotions with the Rev. Kenneth N. Alexander, pastor of St. James Methodist Church, saying the prayer.

Routine business was checked and all special events for the fall and winter seasons were approved, the first of which will be the Halloween party for boys and girls between the ages of 12 and 18.

Plan Laymen's Meeting

The Rev. Dr. Alexander and Schafer were named to attend a planning committee meeting in Poughkeepsie Oct. 22 to assist in plans for the laymen's conference scheduled in late November.

There were also 13 special guests introduced at the beginning of the meeting. This group was composed of 12 volunteers and the part-time Boys Department assistant, Mrs. Eva Oskay and Mrs. Virginia represented the mother's club committee.

Randolph Christensen represented the junior and senior Youth Center dance group. Miss Judy Matthews is the boys craft instructor. Ethel Van Valkenburg and Mary Flemming are connected with the youth group in chaperoning the Junior Youth Dances.

Ernie Lombardi, Kenneth Dyson, Nicholas Nagle, Robert Lawrence, Joseph Klonowski and Alfred Short are all assisting in the enlarged program in the gymnasium and swimming pool.

Kenneth Dyson has the longest service record in the local Y with 16 years to his credit. Dyson, together with Secretary Schafer and about 10 other high school boys and girls were instrumental in organizing the YMCA Youth Center.

Board members in attendance were DeKay, Elmer A. Ryalence, George J. Silkworth, Jack Haulenbeck, Joseph O'Connor, Dr. Alexander, John Purvis, Victor Fletcher and Schafer.

Neji to Carry Record Weight

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. Ogden Phipps' Neji, claimed by many as the greatest steeplechaser ever seen in this country, will try to pack a record-smashing 176 pounds to victory Wednesday in the $50,000-added Temple Gwathmey Steeplechase at Belmont Park.

Eight jumpers were entered for the about 2½-mile race, richest steeplechase in the world. Neji will be seeking his third victory in the event.

Paired with Hickory Pride as an entry, Circo sped into the lead at the quarter pole. Driven by Billy Haughton, he covered the mile in 2:06 2-5. The triumph automatically makes Circo the winter book favorite for next year's Hambletonian.

At Batavia Downs, Parker Hawk won the feature mile pace in 2:06 4-5. The 5-year-old gelding, with Gale Chick at the reins, won by half a length over Kala Pence and returned $7.70.

Ram Mentor Claims No More Rules Broken

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Coach Sid Gillman claims his Los Angeles Rams broke no more rules in their penalty-packed game with the Chicago Bears last Sunday than they do on an average Sunday afternoon.

After viewing films of the game Tuesday, Gillman said: "We played our normal game in Chicago. There was no more holding and no less than the average for our team, or any pro team. The same goes for clipping and everything else. But look at the difference in the statistics."

Favored Circo Captures Hilltop Trot at Yonkers

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Circo, the favorite, won the $98,837.50 Hilltop trot Tuesday night at Yonkers Raceway and equalled the world record for 2-year-old colts on a half-mile track.

Paired with Hickory Pride as an entry, Circo sped into the lead at the quarter pole. Driven by Billy Haughton, he covered the mile in 2:06 2-5. The triumph automatically makes Circo the winter book favorite for next year's Hambletonian.

Licenses Revoked

In New York City Tuesday, the State Harness Racing Commission revoked the licenses of Thomas H. Loss of Swanton, Ohio, and Harry Johnson of Shelbyville, Indiana.

Loss is owner of the harness racer Widower Creed and Johnson is the groom.

P. Monaghan said state laboratory tests of saliva taken from the horse after the $50,000 trans-America pace at Yonkers Sept. 30 showed presence of atropine.

The drug is a stimulant when given in small doses. Its purchase is not illegal, but its use at the track must be reported, the commissioner said.

Trainer and driver Howard F. Beissinger of Hamilton, Ohio, was ordered suspended until the end of the racing season at Yonkers Nov. 25. He was cleared of any part in the doping, except for neglect, the commissioner said.

Monaghan said it was brought out during a hearing that the drug was administered by swabbing the horse's mouth because he was snorting.

Widower Creed won $6,000 when he finished third in the race. The money probably will be redistributed.

He also is the author of several books on sports and is renowned as an outstanding speaker on the sports after-dinner circuit.

Well Known in Sports

"Tom Meany's career as one of the nation's best sportswriters lends itself brilliantly to this testimonial honoring Charlie Tiano," McCarthy said, "for he has written and been an intimate of sports' outstanding figures from the Golden Era to the present day. We know he will delight the sports audience on Nov. 10."

Meany joined the Yankees promotional staff this year and is featured on several of the pre and post-game TV shows conducted by Red Barber from Yankee Stadium.

More Than 300 Going

Reservations for the dinner have already exceeded 300 persons, it was announced by Anthony J. (Tony) deLisio and Thomas M. (Tommy) Davitt, co-chairmen of the testimonial. It is expected that more than 350 persons will attend to honor Tiano, celebrating a quarter of a century as one of the area's most widely-read and conversant sports figures.

The testimonial committee will hold its next meeting Wednesday, Oct. 29 at 7:30 p. m. at the Twaalfskill Golf Club.

There has been a heavy demand for tickets from bowling, golf and baseball enthusiasts and high school coaching staffs in the area with whom Tiano has been closely associated during his 25-year career as a writer and sports promoter.

Ortega Ready To Meet Jordan In Top Battle

By BOB MYERS

Associated Press Sports Writer
LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Boxing goes slightly black tie tonight when Gaspar Ortega of Tijuana, Mex., and Don Jordan of Los Angeles hook up in a 12-round rematch. The winner is set for a title fight with welterweight champion Virgil Atkins.

The bout will be nationally televised via ABC, starting at 6 p. m., PST.

The setting will be the grand ballroom of the Lafayette Hotel, where in July beaties from all over the world resided for the Miss Universe contest.

Black ties and stiff shirts are hardly mandatory but 1,000 or so sports-minded Long Beach socialites figure to be on hand. They will pay $25 or $15 for the fight and dinner.

Jordan scored a decision over Ortega in Portland, Ore., Sept. 17, and in July attracted national attention when he whipped another ranking welterweight, Isaac Logart of Cuba. He fights both as a lightweight and a welterweight.

The national ratings are a little confusing. Ring magazine has Ortega No. 3 as a welterweight and Jordan No. 1. The NBA ranks Jordan as the No. 2 lightweight but doesn't rate him as a welterweight.

Both fighters are 23.

Nacerelli, who played his college ball at Fordham, joined the club this year after finishing military service.

Bass Has Lead In Total Offense

NEW YORK (AP)—Although he gained "only" 58 yards in 17 plays against Cincinnati last Saturday, Dick Bass of College of Pacific took over the individual total offense lead among major colleges.

National Collegiate Athletic Bureau statistics revealed today that Bass' rushing total is 619 yards, one of the best mid-season marks on record. Strangely his total offense figure of 672 is one of the lowest at a similar stage of the season.

Bob Newman of Washington State maintained his forward passing lead, also despite a comparatively poor performance last week. He completed two passes in only three tries, but his season mark of 49 completions in 75 attempts for a .653 percentage still is tops.

Only twice before has a total offense leader at this stage of the season had a lower total than that of Bass. In 1935 George Welsh of Navy, ultimate champion, led with 634 yards, and in 1947 Bobby Gage of Clemson had 651 yards after the fourth week.

The lowest average per game ever compiled by a champion was 137 yards by UCLA's Kenny Washington in 1939. Only two players — Bass and Bill Austin of Rutgers — have done that well in less than half the current season.

Joe Franchin of Navy, by tossing one touchdown pass as Navy lost to Tulane, now leads in that department with seven. Peter Hall of Marquette has the doubtful distinction of having the most passes intercepted — 10.

Jim Brown Nears NFL Rushing Record

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Statistics are proving what many opposing football players already accept as fact — that Jim Brown may be the greatest rusher in the history of the National Football League.

Official NFL figures released today show that the bruising full-back of the Eastern Division — leading Cleveland Browns — is well on his way to setting a rushing record for one season and also has a good shot at a scoring record.

The former Syracuse star has accounted for 635 yards on 94 running attempts in the Browns' four winning efforts this year. That figures out to a 6.8 yard average per carry and a game average of almost 159 yards. The game figure is about 65 yards more than Steve Van Buren averaged when he set the present NFL league rushing record with 1,146 yards for the Philadelphia Eagles in 1949.

Rookie Shines

Another big reason for the Browns' success is rookie Bob Mitchell whose season total of 370 yards rushing is second best in the league. Mitchell has averaged 8.8 yards for each of his 42 runs. Tom Wilson of Los Angeles is a distant third with 302 yards by running.

Eddie Lebaron of the Washington Redskins, John Brodie of San Francisco and John Unitas of Baltimore continue to head the passers. Lebaron has the best average gain per pass attempt, 9.70 yards. Brodie has the best completion average, 58.8 per cent in 68 attempts. Unitas' passing has accounted for the most yards, 907.

Brown Has 10 TDs

Brown heads the scoring parade with 10 touchdowns for 60 points in his four games. The league record for TDs in one season is 18 in 10 games by Van Buren. Willie Galimore of the Chicago Bears has 42 points for second place in the scoring race.

Ray Berry of the Colts has caught the most passes in the 1958 season, 23 good for 361 yards. But Del Shofner of the Los Angeles Rams has gained the most yards, 424 in 19 catches.

Other statistical leaders are Sam Baker of Washington, a 45.7 yard punting average; Billy Wells of Philadelphia, a 14.9 yard average for his punt returns; Don Maynard of the New York Giants, a 31 yard average on kickoff returns, and Jack Butler of Pittsburgh with six pass interceptions.

Sixteen Advance To Second Round Of Golf Tourney

PINEHURST, N. C. (AP)—Sixteen survivors moved into the second round of the North and South Seniors Golf Tournament today after a first round marked by upper bracket victories for medalist Thomas Robbins of Pinehurst and venerable Chick Evans. Robbins, whose three under par 69 gave him the medal Monday, romped past P. J. Farley of Grand Rapids, Mich., 6 and 5, in his first match play test.

Evans, winner of both the U.S. Open and Amateur titles 42 years ago, prevailed by the same score over George Henderson of Pittsburgh.

There was only one 1 up match of the eight in the upper bracket and five failed to go beyond the 13th hole.

But in the lower half there were two 1 up affairs, five by 3 and 2 and a 4 and 3 triumph, turned in by J. Wolcott Brown, Southern Seniors champion from Sea Girt, N. J., over E. F. Quittner of Rydal, Pa.

Eleven men had to play off for the last seven positions and James McAlvin of Lake Forest, Ill., was the only one of the seven survivors to go on and win a match. Robbins, holder of the U.S. Golf Assn. senior championship, met John McGuire of Martinsville, Ind. and Evans faced Leon Sykes Sr., Palm Beach, Fla., today.

Hobie Nears Lead In DUSO Scoring

Flashing his old form against Poughkeepsie, Hobie Armstrong, Kingston High School's spectacular halfback, has vaulted into contention for scoring honors in the DUSO Football League, according to latest unofficial figures.

Armstrong, who won the crown last year with 66 points, tallied a pair of touchdowns and kicked four conversions in five attempts against Poughkeepsie for a total of 16 points. He had previously kicked an extra point against Port Jervis, a game Hobie had to sit out because of an ankle injury.

Jimmy Gordon, Poughkeepsie High School's sophomore halfback, didn't score against Kingston, but he still retained his first place lead with 18 points. Hobie is close behind with 17 and four players have 12. Poughkeepsie has played three league games and the other clubs, except Newburgh, have played two. The Goldbacks have played only one league game.

Middies Scoreless

Twenty players have entered the scoring column and all teams except Middletown are represented. The Middies have been blanked in both their circuit starts. Kingston has shown its versatility as seven Maroon players have tallied touchdowns.

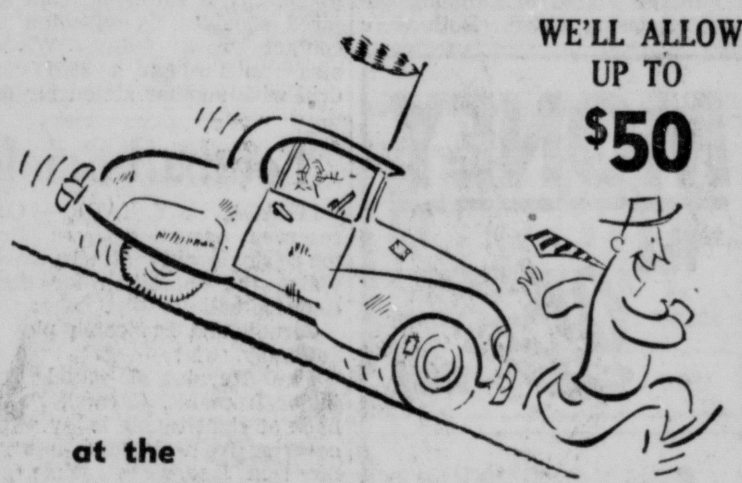

Middletown plays against Suffern and Port Jervis hosts Saugerties in an arclight attraction Friday, but the other clubs, Kingston, Newburgh and Poughkeepsie are idle. Circuit action resumes next week with Port Jervis playing at Newburgh.

Southeastern Conference Produces Seventeen Upsets.

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

It used to be that preparing for a Southwest Conference football team was risky business. Things are different this year. The Southeastern Conference has taken over the spoiler role, with neighboring Atlantic Coast and Southern Conferences right behind.

The SEC has produced 17 upsets compared to seven for the Southern Conference six. Four teams from the ACC have helped produce three each — win or lose or draw — while the SEC's Vanderbilt also has been involved in a trio. Two of the teams — North Carolina State and Duke — meet Saturday, while the other three, Maryland, Wake Forest and Vanderbilt meet teams which have been involved in at least one upset.

Night Practice

Duke's Coach Bill Murray, whose team is a 10-point favorite, is doing his best to guard against a fourth upset, he had his boys under the lights in cold, windy Duke Stadium Tuesday, minus guard Ron Bostian, out with a bruised hip.

NC State's Earle Edwards concentrated on running and pass defense after telling his squad that Duke's offense was designed to "keep them guessing."

Maryland, 14-point underdog to Auburn, will probably have to play without guard Rod Brecklove and Tom Gunderman, who missed Tuesday's hour and a half scrimmage aimed at stopping the Tigers' passing attack. Both were injured last Saturday against North Carolina.

Wake Forest, seven point underdog against North Carolina, held its second consecutive secret practice, working on offense.

Virginia, on the other hand, is taking aim on 13-point favorite Vanderbilt, though it will have to play without quarterback and passer Reece Whitely, out for the second straight week with a bad ankle.

The Cavaliers, after hearing of Vandy's great speed, divided their time between offense and defense.

There is upset potential galore in other parts of the nation as teams got down to the bruising work in the week's practice schedule.

Princeton learns today whether star tailback Dan Sachs will be available for Saturday's Ivy League game with Cornell. Sachs was injured against Penn two weeks ago.

Two games in the Big Ten Saturday have upset written all over them. Iowa meets undefeated Northwestern and is a 10-point favorite while undefeated Ohio State entertains Wisconsin, a 6-point underdog. The Hawkeyes were strengthened by the return of fullback and Capt. John Nocera, out with bad knees, while Northwestern went through dummy drills and scheduled its only contact work for today. Tackle De Witt Hoopes is a doubtful starter Saturday.

The Buckeyes, with halfback Don Clark watching from the sidelines, went through a stiff scrimmage. Clark, suffering from an injured shoulder, is expected to do contact work today. Wisconsin also ran through a stiff contact drill with another slated for today.

Football Briefs

ITHACA, N. Y. (AP) — Cornell reserves operating from Princeton's single-wing attack are providing the opposition for the Big Red football varsity.

Cornell and Princeton play here Saturday.

Tom Revak, 205-pound Cornell junior from Mt. Carmel, Pa., was back at right tackle today after recovering from an ankle injury suffered in last week's Yale game.

HAMILTON, N. Y. (AP) — The Colgate football squad is sharpening its passing attack in preparation for a meeting with Yale Saturday at New Haven.

Colgate Coach Fred Rice held scrimmages Tuesday in which his line worked against a freshman unit equipped with Yale plays.

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) — Rodger Davis, a 217-pound junior, has won back a spot on the line of the Syracuse University varsity football squad.

Coach Ben Schwartzwalder said Davis, who is from Solon, Ohio, was one of the Orange's best linemen against Nebraska last Saturday.

Maury Yeomans of North Syracuse had replaced Davis as starting left guard. Yeomans has been moved to the team's alternate unit.

Matthews Wanted KO

By NOAH HALPER

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — You'd hardly guess by listening to young Len Matthews today that the unbeaten lightweight prospect had just successfully passed his most important ring test.

Somewhat dejected despite his unanimous 10-round decision Tuesday night over crafty Orlando Zulueta, Matthews complained, "I never really got a good shot at him. He taught me a lot but I'd like to fight someone who would throw more punches."

Zulueta, 30-year-old Cuban veteran of 110 fights, seemed relieved that he had survived two knockdowns and lasted the distance.

"The kid's got class," Zulueta said.

The bout was the 15th for Matthews, a 19-year-old Philadelphian who only once before had gone 10 rounds. The greater experience of the Cuban showed in early rounds when he held his own strictly on his boxing and counterpunching ability.

He inflicted an inch-and-a-half gash over Matthews' left eyebrow midway through the fourth round.

Wanted Fast Kyo

As Matthews explained it afterwards: "I wanted to get him suddenly, as fast as I could." He said trainer Quenzell McCall warned him against this, cautioning that he might leave himself open.

Matthews, at 133, two pounds less than Zulueta, said he took McCall's advice, but it didn't look it from ringside. He started moving faster and throwing harder and more often, apparently worried that ring physician Alfred Ayella Jr. would stop the fight.

Zulueta, whose record now is 63-36-11, couldn't cope with Matthews after that. He was floored in the sixth for the mandatory eight count when Matthews caught him off balance. Then a left uppercut and a right to the head in the seventh put him down with authority.

The Cuban, who had been knocked down previously only by lightweight champion Joe Brown, was through at this point.

He clinched more and resorted more to using his head at close quarters in a futile attempt to open the cut beyond repair.

Manager Anthony Graziano said Matthews will rest at least two months and then hopes to meet Carlos Ortiz or Johnny Busso.

Monty Second in Lineman Vote

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Bill Leeka, UCLA tackle, put on his college football pads for the last time Saturday. He played such a bangup game against Washington that he was named today the Lineman of the Week.

Leeka, a 6-0, 202-pounder, was one of six UCLA seniors who closed out their half-season of eligibility because of Pacific Coast Conference penalties. Leeka and his mates bowed out in style as UCLA surprised by beating the Huskies 20-0 for their first PCC triumph.

"I've never seen tackle played better than Leeka played it against the Huskies," declared Bill Barnes, UCLA coach.

Jeff Langston, Iowa end, and Monty Stickles, Notre Dame end, from Poughkeepsie, were high up in the voting by sports writers and broadcasters in the weekly Associated Press poll.

Scored Nine Points

Langston plucked a Wisconsin fumble out of the air and ran 21 yards for what proved to be the winning touchdown in Iowa's 20-9 victory. Stickles scored all of Notre Dame's points in the Irish 9-7 victory over Duke. He first caught a forward pass for a TD, then after the Blue Devils went ahead he booted a 23-yard field goal in the second half for the winning points.

Jim Healy, Holy Cross guard, and Jim Wood, Oklahoma State end, also stood high in the balloting. Healy blocked a Dartmouth field goal try. The ball flew off to one side and was caught by John Esposito, Healy's teammate, who ran 80 yards for the winning touchdown.

Wood's tackling and punting helped Oklahoma State tumble Houston from the unbeaten ranks. He had a total of 11 individual tackles and assisted in nine more as the Cowpokes made on several

Young Japanese Hurler Wins Four Straight Playoff Games

TOKYO (AP) — The newest baseball hero of Japan is a 21-year-old son of a Kyushu fishmonger — a young pitcher who almost single handedly won the Japan "World Series."

He is Kazuhisa Inao, a sleepy-eyed, muscular athlete who seemingly never tires.

Won Last Four

A pitcher for the Nishitetsu Lions, he saw his team lose the first three games to the Yomiuri Giants in the best-of-seven series. Then, in a rally reminiscent of the Yankees' comeback against Milwaukee, the Lions proceeded to win the next four games.

Inao won them all. In fact, this young iron man pitched in six of the seven games. He pitched a record 26 scoreless innings. He didn't issue a walk for 18 innings.

The press called him "superman" and the boy wonder. All Japan is anxiously waiting to see how their hero fares against the St. Louis Cardinals, who arrive here Tuesday night for a series of games against Japanese all-stars, beginning Friday.

The Cardinals played in Korea earlier in the day, beating an all-star Korean team 3-0.

Add minced chives and parsley to butter by creaming together, then serve a dollop of the mixture or broiled chops or steaks.

goal line stands that preserved their 7-0 victory. In addition he punted six times for a 39.8 yard average. One of his kicks went for 56 yards.

Cardinals Liven Up Offenses

CHICAGO (AP) — This is the year of varied formations and the Chicago Cardinals are adding spice to the already hopped-up National Football League.

Coach Frank Ivy, who took over this season after winning three Grey Cups in four years with Edmonton in the Canadian League, has introduced the double wing-T and triple wing-T in the pro loop.

His success is a matter of record. The Cardinals are tied for second place in the Eastern Division and lead the entire league in total offense. They have lost two of their four games only because of failings on defense.

Ivy's innovations come from Canadian football, which is played with 12 men who toss the ball around as if they were on a basketball court.

These wing formations enable a team to exploit the passing game as attested by the Cardinal record of 63 completions in 119 attempts for 1,023 yards and 8 touchdowns.

"We may sacrifice a little straight power," says Ivy, "but we also have four or five men to pass to quickly. Also our backs are close enough so that they can take the ball and run with it."

In the double wing-T, the Cardinals split their ends as wide as desired. The quarterback and fullback remain in regular T-formation positions. The two halfbacks, however, are a yard behind the line of scrimmage and are directly behind or a step outside the tackles.

This gives the halfbacks an advantage of several yards if they are used as pass receivers. They can also pull back and block for the passer.

In the triple wing-T, the fullback leaves his regular position and moves in between the split end and the halfback. This way the Cardinals have five pass receivers who can move into the secondary quickly.

North Carolina Jet Team Holds Lead in Meet

TYNDALL AIR FORCE BASE, Fla. (AP)—A rare double-hit on a speedy jet drone-enabled the 482nd Squadron based at Seymour Johnson AFB, N. C., to hold the lead in its phase of the Air Force weapons meet.

The supersonic F-102 Delta Dagger pilots from Seymour Johnson had 13,600 points going into today's third round competition. The one-two punch was delivered Tuesday by the team leader, Col. Roy B. Caviness, Pharr, Tex., and his wingman, Capt. Vincent Stacy of Crystal Falls, Mich.

The Delta Daggers fire Falcon missiles. In the F-89 Scorpion competition, the 29th Fighter Squadron from Malmstrom AFB, Mont., compiled a two-day total of 13,100. The team fires Genie air-to-air rockets and is led by Col. William A. Jones, Ontario, Calif.

A tie developed in the F-86 Sabre Jet competition. The 125th Fighter-Interceptor Group, Air National Guard, Jacksonville, Fla., pulled even at 6,800 points with the 526th Fighter-Interceptor Squadron from Wiesbaden, Germany. The team leaders are Col. Robert E. Dawson, Atlanta, and Col. James W. Little, Beattyville, Wyo., respectively.

The F-86s are firing the 2.75-inch folding fin rocket. This second half of the sixth annual meet will continue until Oct. 30 with 12 missions flown a day over the Gulf of Mexico. The first half, the tactical fighter weapons competition, was won last week by Nellis AFB, Nev.

Name New Paltz Youth Honor Man Of Recruit Unit

EDWARD W. MORRIS

A hospital corps man in the Navy, Edward William Morris of New Paltz was recently selected as honor man of his company following completion of recruit training at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

For outstanding performance of duty while undergoing training, he was named honor man of his company and was chosen to receive the American Spirit Honor Medal. This medal is awarded to enlisted personnel who, while undergoing recruit training, displayed outstanding qualities of leadership best expressing the American Spirit, honor, initiative, loyalty and high example to comrades in arms.

He is currently spending a 14-day leave at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Morris, 3 North Manheim Boulevard, New Paltz.

A graduate of Cardinal Farley High School, Rhinebeck, he selected as his choice for training under the high school graduate training program, the general technical specialty.

During recruit training, he acted as company clerk, assisting his company commander in preparing the schedule of classes and the responsibility for the morning roll call of recruits.

Upon completion of his leave, he will return to the naval station at Great Lakes and attend the Class A Hospital Corps Trade School.

Stories Conflict In Shooting of Close's Nephew

Conflicting accounts were given police on a shooting early Tuesday morning at the Town of Wappingers home of Thomas Close, 32, a nephew of Dutchess County Sheriff Fred C. Close.

It was reported that the sheriff's nephew suffered a flesh wound of the abdomen and was treated at Vassar Brothers Hospital, Poughkeepsie.

The shooting was investigated by deputy sheriffs and Fishkill state police. Sheriff Close identified the man as his nephew and reported he was taken to the hospital by his brother, Donald, who lives nearby.

The sheriff and troopers said there were two different stories on the shooting which occurred about 1 a. m.

The sheriff's nephew told authorities he was cleaning his .22 caliber rifle preparatory to going hunting and when he placed it beside a chair the rifle discharged. His wife told authorities her husband shot himself with the rifle following a "family

Rickover Hails Ship Reactor as Great as 'A' Sub

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP)—A large ship reactor designed to prove the effectiveness of atomic propulsion for a cruiser and an aircraft carrier went into operation Tuesday at the nearby National Reactor Testing Station.

Rear Adm. H. G. Rickover, chief of the Navy's nuclear program, was present when the reactor sustained a chain reaction.

Rickover said he feels the large ship reactor will prove as revolutionary as the atomic submarine.

"We may find new, undreamed of uses for big surface ships. These are things that must be tried out before we can fully assess their value," he said.

The prototype power plant is a huge hull with two atomic reactors driving a single shaft. It was designed for two nuclear-powered ships now under construction—the guided missile cruiser Long Beach and the aircraft carrier Enterprise.

Sen. Henry Dworshak (R-Idaho) a member of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy, said surface ships powered by the atom could eliminate tankers and big fueling installations ashore.

The prototype power plant was designed and developed by Westinghouse Electric Corp. in cooperation with the AEC. The Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Co. built the simulated hull and the installed nuclear and machinery plant components under a subcontract with Westinghouse.

Ruling Due Later On Challenge of Apalachin Seven

NEW YORK (AP)—The Appellate Division of the State Supreme Court will rule later on the challenge of the warrants jailing seven men who allegedly attended the Apalachin gangland meeting.

Attorneys for the seven prisoners presented the challenge in the appellate division's first department Tuesday.

The warrants committing the seven to jail were issued last August after the men had been offered immunity but refused to answer questions about the Nov. 14, 1957, upstate convulse. They were questioned at public hearings that began Aug. 12.

Attorneys for the men argued that the Apalachin probe by the State Commission of Investigation was an attempt to have a state agency investigate and prosecute federal crimes.

The prisoners are Frank Joseph Valenti, 47, of Rochester; C. P. Valenti, 32, of Rochester; Rosario Mancuso, 51, of Utica; Joseph Riccobono, 64, of Staten Island; Paul Castellano, 46, of Brooklyn; Michael Miranda, 62, of Forest Hills, Queens, and Carmine Lombardozzi, 45, of Brooklyn.

Prison Officers Group Elects 1959 Officials

Gerald Farley of Queens Village was elected president of the State-Wide Prison Officers Conference at the 12th annual meeting held recently in Wallkill.

Deputy Sheriff Wesley O'Brien of Glenford was named to the group's legislative committee.

The new officers will be installed at the annual meeting scheduled in Albany in January, 1959.

Discussed at the Wallkill meeting were the numerous grades of pay for prison officers and the 15 minutes before roll call "that is common in practice in most penal institutions."

Delegates reported that some institutions work the men as much as one half hour a day overtime with no compensation or time off for same. The conference was asked to aid in obtaining this overtime either in extra pay or time off.

A three year maximum pay bill will be introduced for state prison officers in the January session. Reports were heard from all delegates on county jail problems, penitentiary problems, state prison problems and progress made by the Correction Officers Benevolent Association in New York City.

It was agreed that morale is low among prison officers throughout the state because of many factors. Only a salary adjustment and pension revision will bring morale back to normal, it was reported.

Communications were read from Nelson A. Rockefeller, Republican candidate for governor and his running mate for lieutenant governor promising support to the conference if they are elected. Clark Ahlberg, budget director, spoke of gains under

Rockefeller Hits Back at Powell On NAACP Case

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rep. Adam Clayton Powell is wrong in claiming that Nelson Rockefeller never supported the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, an NAACP official says.

Thurgood Marshall, NAACP counsel, said Tuesday that Rockefeller, Republican candidate for governor, had contributed at least $5,000 to the organization's legal defense fund in recent years.

Powell's claim was coupled with a charge that Rockefeller was "campaigning on the basis of his philanthropy — doing nothing more than a mass production method of trying to buy votes."

Brings Heated Reply

The Harlem Negro Democrat's statements brought a heated reply from Rockefeller.

The GOP candidate revised his campaign schedule to include an extra talk in Harlem. "It is especially shocking to me to be charged with using philanthropy to buy votes," he said.

He said his family had helped Negroes since the pre-civil war days of the "underground railroad" and added he was proud of his financial contributions to the Urban League and the NAACP.

The Rockefeller family gave philanthropically, he said, because it believed in "man's right to freedom and to brotherhood under the Harriman administration."

More than 75 delegates attended the meeting. The conference reportedly represents more than 6,000 prison officers throughout the state.

GIs Benefactors

German Boy, 5, Faces 'Blue Baby' Operation Today

BALTIMORE (AP) — Young Klaus Kaemmerer, his mother by his side and some 500 American soldier buddies rooting for him in Germany, was ready today to have his deformed heart repaired.

The 5-year-old curly-headed German boy and his attractive young mother were reunited at Johns Hopkins Hospital late Tuesday.

Today, Klaus goes under the skilled knife of Dr. Alfred Blalock, surgeon-father of the "blue baby" operation Klaus needs. Dr. Blalock will attempt to repair a congenital defect in the youngster's heart.

Klaus was flown here last week from Frankfurt, Germany. Hopkins doctors delayed the operation until his mother could be brought here too.

When Mrs. Sigrid Kaemmerer entered the hospital after her arrival by plane, Klaus was busy playing with blocks. He said nothing at first, just looked. But a smile of recognition slowly formed. It widened into a broad grin as his mother took him in her arms.

The Kaemmerers have three other children in Germany and little money. A trip to this country would have been unthinkable without help. But they had plenty of help.

The men of the United States 3rd Missile Battalion, 71st Artillery, stationed in Karlsruhe, have been the family's benefactors.

More than 500 men of the battalion raised some $2,500 to send Klaus here for the operation.

Then they joined townspeople to raise some more to send his mother over.

-2 in Colorado

FRASER, Colo. (AP) — Fraser, high in the Colorado Rockies, today recorded its first sub-zero temperature since last winter. The mercury fell to -2. Elevation of the small community is 8,550 feet. It generally is the cold spot of the country, and today was no exception. Other Colorado minimums mostly were in the 30s.

Singapore Bans Papers

SINGAPORE (AP) — The Singapore government today banned the import, sale and circulation of all publications from 53 publishing houses in Red China and Hong Kong. The chief secretary also revoked permits of several local "mosquito" newspapers — 4 to 8 page papers published at intervals of one to three weeks — because they consistently published material "harmful to the security of Malaya or to public morals."

'Guest' Takes Truck

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP) — A destitute transient housed overnight by the Salvation Army here is gone—but not forgotten. Officials reported their "guest" made off with a 1½-ton panel truck.

Bad Winter Ahead

Baer's Almanac Sees Lots of Snow, Cold; Ides of March Tip

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — It's going to be a wonderful bad winter, said the sages in the idiom of this famed Conestoga wagon country.

If you scoff at the prophecy of such a scourge, just hearken to how the Pennsylvania Dutch are getting ready for it:

They are waxing sleigh runners, combing out fur caps, stocking up on venison and shaking out the great feather beds.

It's all down in crafty black and white in the new John Baer's Almanac for 1959, out today for its 134th year as a sheet anchor of agriculture and a sturdy survivor of quaint Americana.

Baer's Almanac treats the reader er to weather lore, cooking recipes, jokes and puns, gems of wisdom from the old masters, folk tales, little poems and tips on animal husbandry. It offers an engaging change of pace, foxy twists, and a mixing of old-fashioned advice with occasional concessions to modernity.

Backing up its forecast of a winter of snowstorms and cold waves, the almanac notes exultantly that it foretold the snow of last March, "the worst in the memory of living men." That storm "mobilized a vast chunk of the nation for days and brought back pioneer rigors."

Rubbing it in, Baer's says watch out for the Ides of March this year too.
